Trucker Hurt When Rig Wrecks

A 29 - year - old Cleveland trucker had a narrow brush with death late Monday night when his tractor - trailer rig loaded with steel veered off the Calcutta - Smiths Ferry Rd. hill and he was thrown through the windshield.

Fred Riddell is in "fair" condition at City Hospital with multiple abrasions and bruises of the body and a cut on the left knee.

He told the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon he was headed downhill when the rig, owned by the J. B. Graham Transfer Co. of Rochester, went out of control as its brakes failed.

Riddell said he swerved off the road into the embankment to halt the tractor and trailer.

Bars of steel in the trailer broke loose from fastenings, and spun off onto the roadway. One hit the side window and broke through.

The road was blocked all night as a wrecker crew retrieved the load of steel bars which were scattered along the highway.

The mishap occurred about 11:30.

LBJ Renews Willingness For Peace

Reacts To Student Visitors' Argument About War Protests

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says despite the massive Communist offensive in South Vietnam he will halt bombing of the North, start peace talks tomorrow and let the enemy "write the agenda" —if Hanoi doesn't try a double-cross.

This was Johnson's off-the-cuff reaction Monday when 1 of 11 college student visitors at the White House argued that campus antiwar demonstrators "are not just the unwashed" but include brilliant young people.

Rep. Roman C. Pucinski D-Ill., earlier told a Chicago audience a presidential emissary was in Hanoi to discuss a possible bombing halt and negotiations to end the war when Communists attacked the U.S. Embassy in Saigon last month.

Pucinski said: "As a matter of fact, the U.S. had to stop the bombing of Hanoi to assure safe passage for the emissary," whom he declined to name.

But he said the emissary was still in Hanoi "as far as we know and he may still be talking to the North Vietnamese."

The White House and State Department declined comment.

Johnson said he thought he understood youthful Vietnam dissenters—"none of us want to die"—but declared "we have gone just as far as decent and honorable people can go" to seek a Vietnam peace.

It was a spontaneous presidential performance—75 minutes of it—in a White House sitting room. With five reporters watching and taking notes, Johnson opened himself to all questions and, in answering, paced, gesticulated, grimaced and orated with more emotion than is normal in his public appearances.

Despite the bloody fracture of the planned Tet truce, Johnson said of the Communists:

"We would meet then tomorrow. But we are not going to surrender. We are willing to reason. We are willing to talk. We are willing to let them write the agenda and say, 'Here are the first subjects you talk about.' "

Vance Extends Visit

Progress Seen As 'Very Little' In Korean Talks

SEOUL (AP) — U.S. presidential envoy Cyrus Vance met for almost three hours today with South Korea's premier and other top Cabinet ministers, but Korean sources reported they made "very little progress" toward eliminating differences between the United States and its Asian ally.

The meeting was "rough going," one Korean source reported. The conference ranged over problems of the complex crisis resulting from South Korea's worries over her defenses in the face of North Korean threats.

Vance planned another meeting with Premier Chung Il-kwon Wednesday and then was expected to pay his second visit to President Chung Hee Park. Whether that would be Vance's final conference nobody in authority would say, but the presidential envoy already has extended his visit one day, into Wednesday.

Korean sources said Vance and the Koreans agreed tentatively that the foreign and defense ministers of the two governments would meet annually to review mutual security problems, with the first meeting to be held in Washington in June. A spokesman for the U.S. Embassy would not comment on the report.

Informed sources also reported that the Koreans were asking the U.S. government to tell North Korea it will denounce the 1953 armistice agreement if the Communists send down any more raiders like the team that tried to assassinate President Park. The South Koreans also reportedly want the Americans to demand that North Korea apologize for the assassination attempt Jan. 21.

One informed Korean source said "very little progress" seemed to have been made toward healing the rift stemming from South Korean feelings that the United States, in its desire to secure the release of the USS Pueblo and its crew, is not paying sufficient attention to South Korean security.

Hurled Back By Enemy's Heavy Fire

North Viet Forces Fight From 'Pits' In Walled Citadel

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese Marines launched a ground assault against strong enemy forces inside the walled Citadel at Hue today, but heavy small-arms, machine-gun and rocket fire drove them back.

The North Vietnamese troops fought from gunpits burrowed deep inside the grimy black stone walls of the inner Citadel in the former imperial capital 400 miles northeast of Saigon.

AP photographer Al Chang reported from Hue that the sky had cleared after two weeks of monsoon rains, but no air support was flown for the Marines today. Air strikes had been flown against enemy positions in the Citadel Monday, and there was no immediate explanation why no planes were in the air today.

"Where the hell is our air support?" one Marine asked Chang bitterly after the costly, unsuccessful assault on the Citadel's inner walls. "We are being chopped up."

More than 1,000 U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops were tightening the vise beside the north bank of the Perfume River. On the south bank, in Hue's modern quarter the Americans had regained control, and the population crept out of refugee camps and shell-marked homes to bury the dead in hastily dug graves.

"The situation in Hue the last three days is generally the same," a U.S. spokesman said in Saigon. "They are holding out along the south wall of the Citadel with their extremely strong point at the southwest corner."

Allied spokesmen said that the 14 days of fighting in Hue have cost the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong 2,393 dead, about half of them inside the Citadel. South Vietnamese casualties were reported moderate, meaning the government force was hard hit. There was no announcement of U.S. casualties.

Hue, 400 miles northeast of Saigon, is the last of 36 South Vietnamese cities and towns where Communist forces are still fighting as organized units two weeks after the start of their biggest offensive of the war. It has cost them, by government count, 32,245 men killed, or more than half of the 60,000 troops U.S. officers believe they committed to the offensive.

Ohio's House Set For Vote On Pollution

Senate Action Due On Bridge Safety, City Income Taxes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio House called for a vote today on the administration's water management and pollution control bill while the Senate concerned itself with bridge safety and municipal income taxes.

At the same time, the House Finance Committee continued hearings on a $850 million bond issue for the May ballot. And both chambers were set to try to iron out differences on a pay equalization bill for most elected officials.

The heavy agenda was drawn up Monday night as the lawmakers returned from weekend recess for routine sessions that included a brief Senate speech by visiting Utah Gov. Calvin L. Rampton.

Initial witnesses as the House Finance Committee opened hearings on the bond issue proposal were Sen. Ralph S. Regula R-29 Stark, chief sponsor of the Senate-passed resolution, and State Finance Director Richard L. Krabach.

They explained provisions in the administration-backed proposal which would allocate $550 million for highway and $300 million for capital improvements and at the same time authorize the legislature to issue revenue bond for state departments with fee revenues sufficient to retire them.

The pollution control and water management bill is a key proposal in the administration's plan to fight dirty rivers and streams and at the same time provide development of efficient use of water.

The bill would create an Ohio Development Authority which could issue revenue bonds and pay them off with user rents and fees.

Technical College Setup Okayed By Ohio's Senate

By WILLIAM V. MERRIMAN
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Ohio Senate unanimously voted Monday night to put the Ohio Board of Regents in the business of running regional technical colleges.

By 25-0, the Senate answered the plea of the legislation's sponsor, State Rep. Ralph S. Regula, R-Navarre, to expand educational opportunities for the 55 per cent of Ohio's high school graduates who do not attend academic - oriented schools of higher learning.

Regula said his bill authorizes a state technical college system to parallel the state's growing university network.

THE TECHNICAL colleges would offer two-year training in job-oriented skills not now available either on the high school level or in state universities.

Regula pointed out that the state now is spending $325 million for the biennium to run its state universities, but only $20 million to support technical education.

His proposal, now headed for the House, is backed by the Board of Regents and its chancellor, John D. Millett.

Passage of the bill could open the way for the regents to go forward with tentative plans to establish and operate a regional technical institute in Stark County.

Regula stressed in outlining the objectives of his bill that existing technical facilities such as the Jefferson County Technical Institute and the technical program in the Salem branch of Kent State University would be protected under the bill's provisions.

—:—

TRUSTEES OF branches and local technical school, for instance, would have to request the Board of Regents to step in and take over their facilities.

And the regents also would have to consider the need for technical education in local areas and if possible establish colleges which would have a wider curriculum than locally-operated schools.

Convictions Reported Up For Desertion

Navy And Marines Post 5 And 6-Year Highs; Army's Dip

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy and Marine Corps posted five and six year highs in desertion convictions respectively last fiscal year and Pentagon figures also show more Air Force members were convicted for desertion than the year before.

But desertion conviction figures for the Army—with far more men in uniform—continued an over-all downward trend underway since World War II.

Desertions have drawn fresh attention with the recent publicized cases of U.S. servicemen seeking asylum in Sweden, assertedly in protest of the Vietnam war.

The Pentagon maintains most men do not desert because of disillusionment over Vietnam but rather because they don't like the regimentation of military life.

Supplying latest desertion figures in response to questions, the Pentagon said:

"There is no evidence to indicate that the reasons for desertions are any different for the Vietnam conflict than they were during World War I, World War II and the Korean War.

"Based on previous information and studies," the Pentagon said, "it appears that such offenders are largely socially and emotionally immature.

"A large majority of such offenders are young, being under 21.

"It can also be assumed that dissatisfaction with service life for a variety of reasons is the major cause of desertions."

In the year ending last June 30 the Navy convicted 25 deserters compared with a decade low of 4 in 1966. The Navy meted out convictions to 60 deserters in 1960, 28 in 1961, 15 in 1962, 17 in 1963, 7 in 1964 and 12 in 1965.

Sixty-eight Marines received desertion convictions in fiscal 1967, up from 25 in 1966 but down from a peak in this decade of 100 in 1960. Other recent years: 1965, 39; 1964, 21; 1963, 59; 1962, 39; and 1961, 64.

The Air Force, reporting figures for the first nine months of calender year 1967, listed 11 convictions in courts-martial of men facing desertion charges.

This compared with 4 in 1966, 16 in 1965, 8 in 1964, 19 in 1963, 22 in 1962 and 28 in 1961.

In fiscal 1967, the Army had 86 convicted deserters. This, calculated against its over-all strength, figured to less than 1 conviction per 1,000 men—0.07 to be exact.

State Would Take Over

GOP Stalls Move In Garbage Issue

NEW YORK (AP) — Balking Senate Republicans at the State Capitol have stalled action on emergency legislation to support Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's controversial settlement of New York City's nine-day garbage strike.

The GOP-controlled Senate postponed action on the governors' bill Monday night as many Republican lawmakers shied from the prospect of approving the plan to have the state temporarily take over the city sanitation department.

The delay marked the day's second setback for the Republican governor. Earlier the Democrat-dominated Assembly refused his request to make a personal appeal for the bill before a joint session of the legislature on the ground it "would be a big Rockefeller show."

After that rebuff, Rockefeller went on television seeking popular and legislative support for the settlement which has been bitterly assailed by his nationally-known fellow Republican, Mayor John V. Lindsay, and editorially attacked by many of the state's newspapers.

In the city, the Sanitation Department said crews would mount snow plows on the trucks today to scrape up the great dunes of debris that accumulated along the curbs during the walkout.

Sent Annonymously Through Mail

Families Of War Dead Subjected To Harassment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Grieving women who have lost husbands and sons in the Vietnam war are being subjected to a barrage of antiwar diatribe sent anonymously through the mail. Some of it says American servicemen fighting in Vietnam are worse than cannibals.

The Associated Press obtained copies of this material from the widow of a soldier killed in combat. It came in hand-addressed envelopes postmarked Susanville, Calif., and bearing the return address: P.O. Box 497, Susanville.

That post office box number is held in the name of H. L. Hummel. The same name appears at the end of an essay included in the antiwar material mailed to the widow.

Also included was a reprint of an antiwar essay printed last summer in The Christian Century, a highly respected nondenominational religious weekly published in Chicago.

On Dec. 19, 1967, The Christian Century filled an order for spokesman for the magazine said the order for reprints was signed: "H. L. Hummel, Box 497, Susanville, Calif."

A telephone call placed to an H. L. Hummel in Susanville was answered by a woman. She said her husband is 87 and could not hear well enough to carry on a direct conversation. She relayed questions to him. He answered into the telephone himelf.

The man, a sheet and blanket salesman, said he had ordered the 100 reprints of the Christian Century article "because I wanted to read them."

State Would Take Over

GOP Stalls Move In Garbage Issue

NEW YORK (AP) — Balking Senate Republicans at the State Capitol have stalled action on emergency legislation to support Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's controversial settlement of New York City's nine-day garbage strike.

The GOP-controlled Senate postponed action on the governors' bill Monday night as many Republican lawmakers shied from the prospect of approving the plan to have the state temporarily take over the city sanitation department.

The delay marked the day's second setback for the Republican governor. Earlier the Democrat-dominated Assembly refused his request to make a personal appeal for the bill before a joint session of the legislature on the ground it "would be a big Rockefeller show."

After that rebuff, Rockefeller went on television seeking popular and legislative support for the settlement which has been bitterly assailed by his nationally-known fellow Republican, Mayor John V. Lindsay, and editorially attacked by many of the state's newspapers.

In the city, the Sanitation Department said crews would mount snow plows on the trucks today to scrape up the great dunes of debris that accumulated along the curbs during the walkout.

Sent Annonymously Through Mail

Families Of War Dead Subjected To Harassment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Grieving women who have lost husbands and sons in the Vietnam war are being subjected to a barrage of antiwar diatribe sent anonymously through the mail. Some of it says American servicemen fighting in Vietnam are worse than cannibals.

The Associated Press obtained copies of this material from the widow of a soldier killed in combat. It came in hand-addressed envelopes postmarked Susanville, Calif., and bearing the return address: P.O. Box 497, Susanville.

That post office box number is held in the name of H. L. Hummel. The same name appears at the end of an essay included in the antiwar material mailed to the widow.

Also included was a reprint of an antiwar essay printed last summer in The Christian Century, a highly respected nondenominational religious weekly published in Chicago.

On Dec. 19, 1967, The Christian Century filled an order for spokesman for the magazine said the order for reprints was signed: "H. L. Hummel, Box 497, Susanville, Calif."

A telephone call placed to an H. L. Hummel in Susanville was answered by a woman. She said her husband is 87 and could not hear well enough to carry on a direct conversation. She relayed questions to him. He answered into the telephone himelf.

The man, a sheet and blanket salesman, said he had ordered the 100 reprints of the Christian Century article "because I wanted to read them."

Can't Afford To Lose War, Nixon Says

DOVER, N.H. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is engaged in a sharp campaign dispute with Gov. George Romney of Michigan over American policy in Vietnam.

Nixon has taken a much harder line on the war.

"This is a war we cannot afford to lose," Nixon said in a speech, "for we are fighting in Vietnam not for Vietnam alone but for peace in the Pacific. It is this larger cause that makes it essential that our side prevail."

The former vice president is battling Romney in New Hampshire where the first presidential primary will be held March 12. Only eight delegates are at stake, but politicians attach unusual psychological importance to the election.

More than 1,200 persons drove across icy, snow-rimmed roads Monday night to hear Nixon deliver the speech at Dover.

Romney, who spent part of last week in Wisconsin, plans to return to resume his campaigning in New Hampshire tonight.

By contrast to Nixon's position on Vietnam, Romney said recently, "We need to take the peace offensive and show we're not warmongers . . . if we continue down this road, it leads right to World War III."

stitutes is called for in the regents' master plan. But Millett and others have expressed concern that present emphasis on locally - based technical education is not making this level of education available to as many young people as it should.

Regula agreed the state has developed "excellent facilities through its state university system for those desiring college, but has failed to recognize the educational needs of students desiring skilled training."

His bill, he stated, "would help to remedy this glaring deficiency in educational facilities."

Ohio education officials have projected a need for 37,000 students in full - time technical education programs in the state.

Right now there are 2,500 full-time students in technical programs funded through the Ohio Department of Education and another 1,000 students in university-based or private technical education centers in Ohio. By contrast to the 3,500 enrolled in Ohio programs, the U.S. Office of Education reports an enrollment of 10,179 in New York and 19,000 in California.

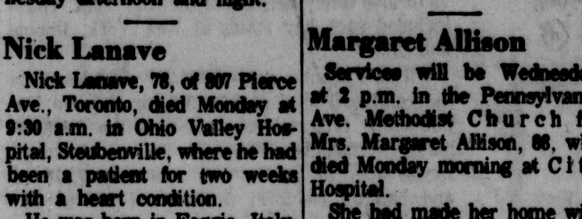

Sources at the Board of Regents said they expected opposition to Regula's bill from several college presidents who want to develop technical education programs within the curricula of their schools, but this was not evident in brief floor discussion on the proposal Monday night.

His bill, he stated, "would help to remedy this glaring deficiency in educational facilities."

Ohio education officials have projected a need for 37,000 students in full - time technical education programs in the state.

Right now there are 2,500 full-time students in technical programs funded through the Ohio Department of Education and another 1,000 students in university-based or private technical education centers in Ohio. By contrast to the 3,500 enrolled in Ohio programs, the U.S. Office of Education reports an enrollment of 10,179 in New York and 19,000 in California.

Sources at the Board of Regents said they expected opposition to Regula's bill from several college presidents who want to develop technical education programs within the curricula of their schools, but this was not evident in brief floor discussion on the proposal Monday night.

Neck Deep In Politics

Every city in the nation should note what happened to Mayor Lindsay of New York at the hands of Gov. Rockefeller in the sanitation workers' strike.

After garbagemen had struck in defiance of state law and their own union leaders and engulfed the city in rubbish, Mayor Lindsay asked the governor to call out the National Guard. The governor refused.

Instead, he made a deal with the strikers to give them more money than they had expected to get. He took over New York City, in effect, and committed it to pay more than it was prepared to pay to settle an illegal strike against its own people.

Gov. Rockefeller has made himself solid with labor unions by his intervention. He has cut Mayor Lindsay's throat ear to ear, in a political sense, because the mayor refused to hold still for what he called "blackmail," while the governor now is qualified as an all-out champion of the "blackmailers."

Other cities in states whose governor feel that organized labor must be appeased at any cost can be forewarned by New York's experience.

Mayor Lindsay is no union-baiter. He is the conscientious mayor of a city whose unions can paralyze its transportation, forcing it to flounder in its own trash, or destroy private enterprise if they fail to get what their extremists demand. Their own leadership cannot control them.

The mayor was fighting for the dignity of New York City. When he had been backed to the wall, he asked for the National Guard.

The National Guard was refused by a governor who says he is not running for the Republican presidential nomination this year but in truth has been running for it at one gait or another since the memory of the GOP elephant runneth not to the contrary.

New York garbagemen say their affairs have been all fouled up in politics lately. They should know. They and their fellow unionist have been as deep in politics as long-suffering New Yorkers were in uncollected garbage last week. And now Nelson Rockefeller is in up to his neck, too.

Death Of A Marine

The moral and political implications of war become less and less important as one nears a combat area, and in the closest and final analysis, war is only the personal struggle to live and overcome the foe.

The death of Marine S. Sgt. Frank Ramos of Midland in Vietnam this week was part of the tragedy of our times — a distant bloody battle, the meaning of which has been clouded by confusion and dissent, twisted by propagandists and opportunists.

But the men with the M-16's are the ones who see this war only in the perspective of fighting men, life reduced to the raw elements of skill, courage, luck.

Sgt. Ramos died on the cruel but necessary faraway field, in the line of duty, as a representative of an ideal of freedom for all people, as a U.S. Marine.

Bandits, Guerrillas And So On

In the aftermath of a sensationally successful guerrilla uprising against the establishment in South Vietnam, doubts about the ultimate success of United States military efforts there were doubled.

When that many cities could be thrown into chaos after years of costly efforts to make them secure for the political regime the United States is supporting, more than a handful of last-ditch insurrectionists had to be involved.

Never has there been stronger reason to doubt that the United States and the government it has been bolstering in Saigon can command the loyalty of even the people who theoretically are their best hope of loyalty.

The Vietnamese guerrillas — bandits — insurrectionists — revolutionists — terrorists — or whatever name they are known by are vastly more than a desperate minority. They are reminded of the "bandits" who once roamed through China in the days when Westerners thought China's fate depended on the ability of its "good guy" generals to round bands of "bandits" and destory them.

It turned out that the "bandits" were more numerous and better organized than the "good guys" and that the latter were not as good as they had been touted to be.

When "insurrectionists" showed their mettle in Hungary in few years ago, they were admirable figures. The Russians didn't think so, of course, and winced at the suggestion that these people were "freedom fighters."

Appelations that go with civil strife are tricky. Fidel Castro once was a "freedom fighter," too. That when he was fighting Fulgencio Battista. To Battista, Castro was a terrorist, which was what he became to Americans, too after Battista, who also had been a terrorist, became a martyr to Communism. But that was only after Castro, once a liberator, declared he had been a Communist all the time.

The American colonists were revolutionists who won and thereby became historically enshrined as liberators. The French who helped them were not interventionists in the 18th century but freedom lovers willing to shed blood in defense of their ideals. The Hessians who also came here were vile reactionaries and scummy mercenaries. They lost.

Everything depends on the point of view. Did the United States really liberate the Philippines, or were the dissatisfied Huks justified in continuing their fight for Filipino independence?

Even in the United States, where such things always are clear and comprehensible, Confederate flags still wave in the Deep South and a political figure down there says he will run for the presidency on a platform of states' rights.

Once, the United States was split between the North and the South, too — and to this day whether fighting men are guerrillas, bandits, rebels, oppressors, or liberators depends on where you live and how you feel about the issue.

Did Abraham Lincoln save the union, or did he beat the South's bid for freedom?

Scout Actions Speak Loudly

One of the organizations that answers the accusation of substandard performance by the youth of today is Boy Scouts of America. Members let their actions speak louder than words.

The creed that guides their conduct in work, sports and learning experiences will be valuable throughout their lifetime.

We are proud to support the Scouting movement in its effort to instill in each Boy Scout a sense of duty to God and his country and a respect and concern for fellow human beings.

As a boy moves through Scout ranks, he learns how to react in emergency situations, becomes adept at outdoor living and, in general, tries to condition himself to live up to the Scout motto: Be Prepared.

Boy Scout Week (Feb. 7-13) was a good time to let the troop in your neighborhood know you appreciate what it is trying to do.

We salute all Scouts and believe our community benefits immensely from their organization.

It looked for a time as if they might have to change the pet name of New York City from "Fun City" to "Fungus City."

Choicest winter-book bets I can think of on the 1968 political outcome are Lyndon B. Johnson and Frank J. Lausche to win both the priminaries and the finals.

WASHINGTON

One of the many discussions still raging in the nation's capital is whether the Viet Cong did or did not get into the American Embassy in Saigon. The official government position is that they did not.

Art Buchwald

One of our public servants told me, "You newspaper people went overboard on the story. The truth is that although the Viet Cong penetrated the embassy grounds, they never did get into the chancery. Since they did not achieve their objective, we consider this one of the worst defeats the Communists have ever suffered in the downtown district of Saigon."

"That may be true," I said, "but there are some people who feel that penetration of the embassy grounds by the Viet Cong gave the American effort in Vietnam a black eye."

"BALDERDASH," my friend said. "The question was never in doubt. Even if the Viet Cong had captured the embassy, we weren't worried."

"You weren't?"

"Of course not. Everyone knows the Viet Cong don't know how to operate an American Embassy."

I guess I must have looked stunned.

He continued: "Let us suppose the worst happened and the Viet Cong did get into the embassy. Do you think they have any notion of how to issue visas or passports or handle the fantastic amount of paperwork that an embassy of this size requires?"

"Well, they aren't trained for it," I had to admit.

"Of course they're not. Our intelligence showed that not one of the 19 Viet Cong who invaded the embassy grounds had any foreign service experience at all."

"Then why would the Viet Cong try to take over the American Embassy?"

"Because they're smug, and it's this smugness that's going to defeat them in the long run. They think they can just walk into one of our embassies and have it running smoothly in six hours. Well, they found out they couldn't. It wasn't just a case of not knowing how to issue passports. Do you know not one of those guerrillas was capable of writing a report to Washington that anyone could have understood?"

"I forgot about writing reports to Washington."

"IT'S OBVIOUS they did, too, or they would have sent a much higher caliber man. Any idiot knows that one of the most important functions of an American Embassy is to cable back clear, precise, reliable reports on the conditions of the country. In the case of Vietnam, they would have had to supply reports on the pacification program, the military assistance program, the AID program, as well as transmit daily body counts to the White House. How they ever expected to do these reports with only 19 men, I'll never know."

"Maybe they were going to bring in more people after they captured the embassy," I suggested.

"It isn't just a question of paperwork and reports," my friend continued. "An American Embassy has to keep up relations with the government as well as other embassies. Do you think anybody in a prominent position in Saigon would come to an American Embassy reception if he knew it was being catered by the Viet Cong?"

"Socially, they'd be cut dead," I agreed.

"It wouldn't have taken more than a week before the Viet Cong realized the disastrous mistake they had made," my source said. "Bogged down in paperwork, besieged by requests from Washington for optimistic reports on how the war was going, faced with the prospect of dealing with President Thieu and Marshal Ky, it would have just been a matter of time before the Communists came to us on their hands and knees and begged us to take back the American Embassy."

"Would you?"

"Only if they indicated by some sign or action that they really wanted peace in South Vietnam."

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We receive our Review here in Dania, Fla., every day, just three days after publication, which is almost as fast as first class mail. Congratulations.

I thought you might be interested in what happens to your paper after it is received here. First I read the highlights. Then Mrs. Jackson reads about every line, including the classifieds.

Then it is passed on to Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Harris of the Marshall Apartments in East Liverpool, who are wintering here at Sunshine Villa in southern Florida.

After they have finished with it, it is given to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Leonard, formerly of East Liverpool. When they are through with it, it is given to Dr. and Mrs. Milton Gottlieb of East Liverpool who are spending the winter at Miami Beach. So you see your paper is being put to good use. I am sure all of us appreciated it, and again congratulations for publishing a good newsy newspaper.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I am in the U.S. Army stationed in Vietnam, and my hometown is East Liverpool.

I am writing about the mail service here in Vietnam, not only speaking for myself but for a lot of other GI's sent over here to help defend our country for what we believe is right.

Mail is what GI's look forward to. Mail helps keep up the morale of the men in Vietnam. Morale is the major thing over here.

I'll give you an example of what the mail service is like here. I got a letter from my mother, and she told me she sent packages which I've never received. By the way, this was a while back. Another example: my girl sent me my Christmas present early in December, and it is February and I haven't received it yet. The package contained a camera.

That surely doesn't help my morale any. I've sent my mother a couple of money orders. She got them, but it took about a month to get there.

Sometimes she gets my letters, and sometimes she doesn't. It works both ways; sometimes I get hers and sometimes not. I am and a lot of other guys are pretty disgusted with the mail service.

We're here fighting for our country, and at least our country could get our mail to us. I want my friends and neighbors to know how the GI's over here feel about this.

Third Parties

Wallace Bid Recalls The Past

WASHINGTON

George C. Wallace's decision to run for president makes him the fifth major third-party candidate of the 20th Century. None has come close to winning.

But one, Theodore Roosevelt, ran a strong second in 1912 and had a lot to do with Woodrow Wilson's victory.

The others were less successful. Sen. Robert LaFollette Sr. won only his home state of Wisconsin in 1924. In 1948, States Rights party candidate Strom Thurmond and Progressive party nominee Henry A. Wallace failed to prevent President Harry S. Truman's re-election.

George Wallace declared in announcing his candidacy last week he thinks he can win.

The former Alabama governor noted that with three candidates in the race he could win a state's entire electoral vote with as little as 34 per cent of its popular vote.

While Wallace's estimate of his own political strength may be optimistic, his knowledge of history was accurate.

IN 1912, Roosevelt failed to wrest the Republican nomination from President William H. Taft, his chosen successor four years earlier. He formed the Progressive party and ran against Taft and Wilson, the Democratic candidate.

Wilson carried 40 states with 435 electoral votes, to six with 88 votes for Roosevelt and two with eight votes for Taft.

But in 26 of those 40 states, Wilson polled less than half of the combined vote and was victorious solely because of the GOP split. These included such key states as New York, Illinois and Ohio.

Wilson's popular vote—6,286,214—was less than the combined total of 7,699,942 for the two Republicans. It was even less than the 6,409,106 polled in 1908 by Democrat William Jennings Bryan when he lost to Taft, who drew 7,679,006 and had an electoral majority of 321 to 162.

In 1924, LaFollette ran against Republican President Calvin Coolidge and Democrat John W. Davis. The senator polled 4,822,856 votes to 15,725,016 for Coolidge and 8,385,586 for Davis.

Of the 35 states Coolidge carried, he won 13 with less than 50 per cent of the vote, mostly small border and Western states. The ones he carried outright included all the big states.

Thurmond's 1948 candidacy stemmed from the Democratic National Convention's adoption of a strong civil-rights platform. The then-South Carolina governor captured control of the regular Democratic machinery and electoral votes of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and his home state.

IN THE same election, Henry Wallace polled 509,559 votes in New York, which Republican nominee Thomas E. Dewey carried by about 60,000 votes. But Truman won the election by carrying California by 17,000 votes and Ohio by 7,000 despite strong Wallace showings.

If Truman had lost those two states, the election would have been thrown into the House for the first time since 1824, since neither candidate would have had the required electoral majority.

In 1960, an effort by some Southern segregationists to force the election into the House failed. States-rights electors carried Alabama and Mississippi, but John F. Kennedy won enough states for an electoral majority.

Even if Wallace fails to win, he could repeat Thurmond's 1948 showing and win some Southern states. The big question then would be whether the two major candidates would split the remaining states evenly or whether one would win enough to get elected.

We receive our Review here in Dania, Fla., every day, just three days after publication, which is almost as fast as first class mail. Congratulations.

I thought you might be interested in what happens to your paper after it is received here. First I read the highlights. Then Mrs. Jackson reads about every line, including the classifieds.

Then it is passed on to Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Harris of the Marshall Apartments in East Liverpool, who are wintering here at Sunshine Villa in southern Florida.

After they have finished with it, it is given to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Leonard, formerly of East Liverpool. When they are through with it, it is given to Dr. and Mrs. Milton Gottlieb of East Liverpool who are spending the winter at Miami Beach. So you see your paper is being put to good use. I am sure all of us appreciated it, and again congratulations for publishing a good newsy newspaper.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I am in the U.S. Army stationed in Vietnam, and my hometown is East Liverpool.

I am writing about the mail service here in Vietnam, not only speaking for myself but for a lot of other GI's sent over here to help defend our country for what we believe is right.

Mail is what GI's look forward to. Mail helps keep up the morale of the men in Vietnam. Morale is the major thing over here.

I'll give you an example of what the mail service is like here. I got a letter from my mother, and she told me she sent packages which I've never received. By the way, this was a while back. Another example: my girl sent me my Christmas present early in December, and it is February and I haven't received it yet. The package contained a camera.

That surely doesn't help my morale any. I've sent my mother a couple of money orders. She got them, but it took about a month to get there.

Sometimes she gets my letters, and sometimes she doesn't. It works both ways; sometimes I get hers and sometimes not. I am and a lot of other guys are pretty disgusted with the mail service.

We're here fighting for our country, and at least our country could get our mail to us. I want my friends and neighbors to know how the GI's over here feel about this.

Wallace Bid Recalls The Past

WASHINGTON

George C. Wallace's decision to run for president makes him the fifth major third-party candidate of the 20th Century. None has come close to winning.

But one, Theodore Roosevelt, ran a strong second in 1912 and had a lot to do with Woodrow Wilson's victory.

The others were less successful. Sen. Robert LaFollette Sr. won only his home state of Wisconsin in 1924. In 1948, States Rights party candidate Strom Thurmond and Progressive party nominee Henry A. Wallace failed to prevent President Harry S. Truman's re-election.

George Wallace declared in announcing his candidacy last week he thinks he can win.

The former Alabama governor noted that with three candidates in the race he could win a state's entire electoral vote with as little as 34 per cent of its popular vote.

While Wallace's estimate of his own political strength may be optimistic, his knowledge of history was accurate.

IN 1912, Roosevelt failed to wrest the Republican nomination from President William H. Taft, his chosen successor four years earlier. He formed the Progressive party and ran against Taft and Wilson, the Democratic candidate.

Wilson carried 40 states with 435 electoral votes, to six with 88 votes for Roosevelt and two with eight votes for Taft.

But in 26 of those 40 states, Wilson polled less than half of the combined vote and was victorious solely because of the GOP split. These included such key states as New York, Illinois and Ohio.

Wilson's popular vote—6,286,214—was less than the combined total of 7,699,942 for the two Republicans. It was even less than the 6,409,106 polled in 1908 by Democrat William Jennings Bryan when he lost to Taft, who drew 7,679,006 and had an electoral majority of 321 to 162.

In 1924, LaFollette ran against Republican President Calvin Coolidge and Democrat John W. Davis. The senator polled 4,822,856 votes to 15,725,016 for Coolidge and 8,385,586 for Davis.

Of the 35 states Coolidge carried, he won 13 with less than 50 per cent of the vote, mostly small border and Western states. The ones he carried outright included all the big states.

Thurmond's 1948 candidacy stemmed from the Democratic National Convention's adoption of a strong civil-rights platform. The then-South Carolina governor captured control of the regular Democratic machinery and electoral votes of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and his home state.

IN THE same election, Henry Wallace polled 509,559 votes in New York, which Republican nominee Thomas E. Dewey carried by about 60,000 votes. But Truman won the election by carrying California by 17,000 votes and Ohio by 7,000 despite strong Wallace showings.

If Truman had lost those two states, the election would have been thrown into the House for the first time since 1824, since neither candidate would have had the required electoral majority.

In 1960, an effort by some Southern segregationists to force the election into the House failed. States-rights electors carried Alabama and Mississippi, but John F. Kennedy won enough states for an electoral majority.

Even if Wallace fails to win, he could repeat Thurmond's 1948 showing and win some Southern states. The big question then would be whether the two major candidates would split the remaining states evenly or whether one would win enough to get elected.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I work in the haberdashery department on the main floor of a well-known men's store in Chicago. Every day I see dozens of women shopping with their husbands. What is this country coming to when a man can't even pick out a suit by himself?

Since you are so frank and forthright when it comes to other people's problems, let's see if you can take it as well as dish it out, Ann.

I have seen you in the store with your husband twice in the last six months. Isn't the guy capable of selecting a suit without you? I'll bet this is one letter that will never get published.—THE REDHEAD.

—:—

Dear Red: My husband is perfectly capable of selecting a suit without me but he'd still be wearing his high school knickers if I didn't practically drag him into a clothing store. I'm willing to bet that most women who show up in men's departments are there for the very same reason — namely to make sure their husbands get some new threads.

Lesson Time

Dear Ann: Please let me be you for a few minutes. I'm a 16-year-old girl who has something important to say. I wish someone had told me last year what I'm about to tell all the girls in America right now.

Girls: Don't let a guy move in on you as if you owed him exploring privileges just because he asked you out for an evening. The time to put a fellow in his place is at the very beginning — before he makes too many gains. The further he goes the more trouble you are going to have with him.

I was one of those dumb bunnies who thought I had to give reason why a date had to keep his hands to himself.

One thing I learned too late is this: You should never get into an argument over it. This is what sunk me. The guy was a fast talker and I was no match for him. Before I knew it I'd lost the argument and I ended up losing something else I had no business losing.

Now I see all the things I did wrong but it's too late. The damage is done. For those of you out there who are still virgins, I hope you'll remember this letter and think of me when some groovy character tries to take over. — CELESTE.

-:-

Dear Celeste: Thanks for your letter. And now I'd like to make a suggestion to the girls for whom it is NOT too late. Clip this column and put it in your compact.

When some eight handed idiot gets out of line and you find yourself on the defensive, pull this column out and read it to him. He probably will fall down laughing but it will interrupt his flow of fancy oratory, at which time you can change the subject.

Dad Gum It!

Dear Ann: My father-in-law is a grand person but he needs dental work so badly it makes me sick. I have to cook special food for him because he has so few teeth left. The ones he has left should come out. I lose my appetite when I have to look at the old gentleman across the table, gumming his food.

I've asked my husband please to speak to his father but he refuses to do it. Should I say something or should I be "tolerant," as my husband advises? — A.M.B.

-:-

Dear A. M. B.: Make a dental appointment for the old gentleman and TAKE him to the dentist. You could be adding years to his life. Some older folks die sooner than they should because of poor nutrition — and their teeth cause it.

Confidentially

To People Are No Damned Good: You haven't 25 years' experience, Mister; you've had one year's experience 25 times. When are you going to start getting smarter instead of just older?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The salary schedules, which provide slight increases will become effective Sept. 1. The schedule for a Bachelor's Degree calls for $5,700, jumping to $8,900 in 13 years, while a holder of a master's degree will start at $6,200 and mount to $10,200 in 20 years.

Salaries for non - certified personnel will be considered later, Supt. C. P. Henderson said.

Taking part in the presentation were Mrs. Elane Griffith, clerk of County Board 16, and Col. Heber L. Minton, state Selective Service director.

The Ohio Selective Service system honored Mrs. Edna Sweeney of 338 W. 4th St. Monday afternoon for nearly 14 years of service as a voluntary registrar.

In a ceremony at Columbiana County Selective Service Board 16 in Lisbon, Mrs. Sweeney received a certificate of appreciation from the state director, Col. Heber L. Minton.

Mrs. Sweeney was appointed registrar March 10, 1954, by L. J. (Jack) Johnson, former Board 16 clerk who is now assistant chief of the field division in state headquarters.

Mrs. Elane Griffith, who succeeded Johnson as board clerk in July 1954, said she is certain Mrs. Sweeney averages at least an hour a day on Board 16 work.

Scarcely a day passes that she does not complete registration cards and discharge notices for "her boys" in and around East Liverpool, Mrs. Griffith said. "This has been a community service to young men who otherwise would have to travel 18 miles to Board 16," she added.

Mrs. Sweeney performs the registrar duties along with her work as clerk in the East Liverpool Civil Defense office. The certificate recognizes her "as one of those rare dedicated people to whom the Selective Service system, especially the members and clerk of Local Board 16, owes its sincere and heartfelt thanks."

Patrol Cites Youth After 2-Car Crash

Four city youths were treated at City Hospital after a two-car collision on Route 170 Monday — one of four mishaps reported by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Treated were Grant Franklin, 17, of Jackman St., driver of one auto, for lacerations of the scalp, and three passengers in his car — Ronald Bryarly, 18, of 1003 Lincoln St., contusions of the jaw; Marvin Schell, 16, of 937 Dresden Ave., bruises of the right index finger and contusions of the chest, and Michael Volino of 363 Ogden St., who had no apparent injuries.

Officers said the accident occurred at 10:55 p. m. when the 1968 station wagon, driven by Franklin, northbound, went left of center about three miles north of Calcutta, and struck a southbound 1964 station wagon operated by Herbert L. McComas, 31, of Rogers RD 1.

The Franklin auto then went off the west side of the road and continued down over an embankment into some small trees, officers reported.

Both autos were heavily damaged, the patrol said, and Franklin was cited for driving left of center.

Another mishap involved one vehicle, a 1964 coupe operated by Deborah S. Salyers, 17, of 1068 Oak St.

Officers said the Salyers' auto was moderately damaged after it slid around three times on the snow - covered pavement, then skidded into an embankment on Route 30 a half mile south of Route 7 Monday at 3:30 p. m., when she lost control attempting to pass an unidentified vehicle.

A car and truck were moderately damaged in a head-on collision on Route 7 a mile north of Route 154 Monday at 6:15 p. m.

Officers said the damage resulted when the auto driven by Cathy Ann Liffick, 21, of Terre Haute, Ind., went left of center on a right curve and struck a tractor - trailer operated by David Lee Cowey, of 536 Carolina Ave., Chester, after she lost control on the slippery highway.

Although she was slightly injured, she was not treated, officers reported.

The woman was cited for speeding.

The Patrol reported few details were available on a mishap which occurred last night on Route 7, 1½ miles south of Route 46, involving a truck and at least one auto.

Officers said a truck operated by Alford M. Hovart, 50, of Youngstown, went off the west side of the highway and struck a building owned by L. C. Cox. Hovart lost control attempting to avoid an unidentified vehicle on the highway, officers said.

Lawyer's Office Ransacked; House On St. Clair Entered

Donald Robinett of 501 College St. found the door to Foulks' office at 5th and Washington Sts. "standing wide open" and a second door was ajar.

Officers who investigated, said entry to the suite of offices probably was gained through room 202, since the lock on the door there was hanging loose. Apparently the thieves left by the door in room 201 since there was damage to the frame, door and lock.

A cabinet, about seven feet tall, had locks broken and papers were strewn about.

Mrs. Foulks was notified and she secured the office, reporting nothing apparently was missing.

Sanford has not yet determined if anything is missing.

About $12 in change was stolen from a parked city bus Monday afternoon.

The driver, Andrew Holtz, said he left his bus on W. 6th St. in the vicinity of the Diamond about 5:55 p.m. and when he returned some five minutes later a money bag containing a roll of quarters valued at $10 and a roll of nickels valued at $2 were missing.

Midland To Hold Open House For Science Section

The new science addition to Midland High School is nearly complete and students have started moving into the rooms.

The Board of Education Monday night was informed by Supt. Charles P. Henderson that partial occupancy of the new science area started yesterday morning.

A gradual "move-in" is planned, he said. Open house for the public will be April 5. This will follow a band concert and art exhibit.

The board approved expenditure of $150 to have brochures printed explaining the new section. The board also authorized a change order to replace beige moulding with black in the biology area.

—:—

TWO REQUESTS concerning teachers were referred to committees.

Reynold Peduzzi, president of the MEA, asked the board to authorize attendance of two Midland teachers at the House of Representatives Committee on Basic Education hearing at Pittsburgh Feb. 27. They would present documented evidence on salary needs and on competition for teachers' services by private industry, Peduzzi said.

The request, after discussion, was referred to the personnel committee headed by Leslie B. Roach.

Peduzzi also requested the school calendar be realigned to move a "'snow day" from March 15 to March 4 so that members of the MEA might attend a day of seminar in Harrisburg where 20,000 teachers, members of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, plan to assemble to show approval of House Bill 2039 elevating teachers' salaries. Peduzzi said MEA members not attending the seminary could take part in one in the area.

The directors discussed the matter at length. James Morrison, finance chairman, voiced immediate disapproval of the proposal, terming it a "strike." He said, "As school board directors, we are also officers of the state and as such cannot sanction a strike."

—:—

PEDUZZI reiterated his request, pointing out that the term "strike" was never used by the PSEA House of Delegates, though it had been used by news media. He also stressed the MEA was only requesting realignment of the school schedule to permit a "snow day" on March 4 rather than on March 15. He pointed out that the MEA has no grudge against the Midland Board, but, as members of the PSEA, is committed to directives coming from it. He added the date of March 4 was selected for the seminar because this is the date when the General Assembly convenes.

Supt. Charles P. Henderson expressed disapproval, citing the long history of satisfactory relationships between the Midland Board and its teaching staff.

The matter was referred to the education committee headed by James Harty for study and recommendation.

—:—

IN OTHER business, Mrs. Angeline Vranich, chairman of the Community Action Committee's Day Care Center committee at Midland, asked the board serve as the delegate agency to apply for funds to open the center at Presentation Catholic Church.

She said the committee has learned since the last school board meeting that funds can be applied for from the Office of Economic Opportunity. Originally the committee had requested the board include the center's needs in its next request for Elementary Secondary Education Act, Title I, funds.

Henderson asked Mrs. Vranich to submit an official letter of request to the board for action at the March meeting.

At Council Meeting

Three Appointed To Lisbon Posts

LISBON — Lisbon got a new street commissioner, fire chief and councilman Monday night.

They are Thirl Flugan, street commissioner; W. A. (Slim) Peters, fire chief, and Larry O. Evans, councilman.

Mayor Clyde B. Pike announced the appointment of Flugan and Peters after reading letters of resignation from Richard Robert, former street commissioner who resigned Jan. 27, and Flugan, former fire chief who resigned Feb. 10.

—:—

THE MAYOR also read a letter of resignation from Councilman Fayson Miller, who has moved to Salem. Council elected Evans to complete the two years remaining on Miller's term.

Evans and his wife, the former Peggy Saling, have two children and reside at 516 W. Lincoln Way. He is employed by the McMillan Abstract Co. at the Courthouse.

Flugan and Peters are veterans in the Lisbon Fire Co., having joined in 1928. Flugan has been chief since his return from World War II in 1946 and Peters has been assistant for several years. The chief receives no salary, but gets $5 per hour on fires and emergency vehicle (ambulance) runs.

—:—

FLUGAN is a mechanic at Bud Shaffer Ford, Inc., in Salem. In his new duties, he will receive $450 a month plus $2.50 an hour for time over 44 hours a week. The appointment is for two years. Flugan was street commissioner about 10 years ago during the administration of Mayor John Todd. Peters is a retired driver for the Coen Oil Co. of Canton.

Pike also announced the reappointment of J. L. Morrissey, regional planning director, and James Pendry, retired Christmas tree grower, to new terms on the Lisbon Shade Tree Committee.

Dean Rose, Lisbon contractor, asked Council for permission to use parking places adjacent to the Arter building to stockpile material for the renovation of the old building (1810) on the Square.

Council granted permission and assured Rose and his associates in Sandy Beaver Enterprises, Inc., of its cooperation in the Arter building project.

Rose and three other contractors — Arthur Whan of the Columbiana Rd. and Richard McKee and Floyd Guterba, both of Columbiana — will begin work this week in tearing out the inside of the three-story building. They plan to build a new fireproof, air - conditioned office building inside the old walls and restore the exterior by sandblasting the bricks, adding shutters and changing the first-floor windows. The building is the birthplace (1837) of Marcus A. Hanna, Cleveland industrialist and political leader.

—:—

DONALD COLEMAN, operator of the Shell Service Station, asked Council for a garbage hauling franchise for the village. Pike referred the request to the utilities committee—William Robinson, Bill Mattix and Willis Coleman.

Clerk - Treasurer John Ebert read a letter from Emmett Wolfe of Vine St., objecting to a proposed ban on overnight parking on village streets.

Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi reported the street committee has discussed the proposed ban at length since the January meeting and reached the conclusion off - street parking is desirable but would work a hardship in a few instances. The issue remains under study. Councilman Ray Beers suggested a public meeting on the proposal before any action is taken, and fellow councilmen agreed.

Donald Langsdale of 322 E. High St., a teacher, questioned Council about the Pritchard Ave. improvement which was started in August but was not completed before the weather turned too cold for blacktopping. The street runs alongside McKinley School. The village has had to add several loads of slag to keep the street passable.

LANGSDALE said he drives the street several times a day. He blamed the condition on "the complete negligence on the part of council."

Baronzzi told him he thought his criticism "unfair" since he does not know the reasons behind many of the delays. Mattix, Council president and street committee chairman, asked the visitor, "Are you so stupid you don't know there was a construction workers' strike last fall?"

"I am not stupid," Langsdale answered, "and I didn't get your name." Mattix replied he was a member of Council, but he did not tell Langsdale his name. Langsdale said he realized he was being "cut off," closed the notebook in which he had been taking notes and left as Council remained silent.

Pike announced the following committee appointments:

Streets — Mattix, Beers, Robinson; police — Beers, Mattix, Evans; fire — Charles Webber, Robinson, Beers; finance — Beers, Webber, Evans; streetlights — Mattix, Coleman, Robinson; sidewalks — Robinson, Coleman; parks — Evans, Coleman; city property — Webber, Beers; police pension board — Coleman, Evans; firemen's relief — Beers, Webber.

DESIGNING ACTOR Richard Harris sets his own fashion trend with this suit of navy velvet trousers and blue silk Nehru jacket with silver thread and braid.

Cases Continued In Traffic Death

A Smiths Ferry resident, charged by city police with failure to yield the right-of-way to a pedestrian and reckless dirving, had his cases continued in Municipal Court today pending the April term of the Columbiana County grand jury.

Glenn C. Garvin, 40, of Smiths Ferry RD 1 is free on $165 bond in the Feb. 3 action in the Diamond here.

The pedestrian, Lawrence Mathes, 62, of Dresden Ave., died at City Hospital last Thursday as a result of injuries received.

Mr. Mathes, the county's fifth traffic victim of the year, reportedly was walking from the curb at 6th St. and St. Clair Ave. when a car operated by Garvin headed into the one-way north section of St. Clair Ave. and was struck from the side by a sedan driven by Harry Frontz, 48, of Buckeye Ave., Wellsville.

City police said the two drivers indicated the other's auto struck Mathes, who was walking from east to west across St. Clair Ave.

Today Garvin entered not guilty pleas to both of the city traffic charges. Judge Samuel Chertoff then announced the continuances pending the outcome of the next term of the grand jury.

Midland Sportsmen Plan Meeting Feb. 21

The Jaycees hope to foster better community relations through the program as well as create better relations between the youth and government, business and education leaders.

"It will provide an opportunity for an exchange of ideas and each side will be given the opportunity to evaluate the other," it was pointed out.

Midland To Hold Open House For Science Section

The new science addition to Midland High School is nearly complete and students have started moving into the rooms.

The Board of Education Monday night was informed by Supt. Charles P. Henderson that partial occupancy of the new science area started yesterday morning.

A gradual "move-in" is planned, he said. Open house for the public will be April 5. This will follow a band concert and art exhibit.

The board approved expenditure of $150 to have brochures printed explaining the new section. The board also authorized a change order to replace beige moulding with black in the biology area.

—:—

TWO REQUESTS concerning teachers were referred to committees.

Reynold Peduzzi, president of the MEA, asked the board to authorize attendance of two Midland teachers at the House of Representatives Committee on Basic Education hearing at Pittsburgh Feb. 27. They would present documented evidence on salary needs and on competition for teachers' services by private industry, Peduzzi said.

The request, after discussion, was referred to the personnel committee headed by Leslie B. Roach.

Peduzzi also requested the school calendar be realigned to move a "'snow day" from March 15 to March 4 so that members of the MEA might attend a day of seminar in Harrisburg where 20,000 teachers, members of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, plan to assemble to show approval of House Bill 2039 elevating teachers' salaries. Peduzzi said MEA members not attending the seminary could take part in one in the area.

The directors discussed the matter at length. James Morrison, finance chairman, voiced immediate disapproval, terming it a "strike." He said, "As school board directors, we are also officers of the state and as such cannot sanction a strike."

—:—

PEDUZZI reiterated his request, pointing out that the term "strike" was never used by the PSEA House of Delegates, though it had been used by news media. He also stressed the MEA was only requesting realignment of the school schedule to permit a "snow day" on March 4 rather than on March 15. He pointed out that the MEA has no grudge against the Midland Board, but, as members of the PSEA, is committed to directives coming from it. He added the date of March 4 was selected for the seminar because this is the date when the General Assembly convenes.

Supt. Charles P. Henderson expressed disapproval, citing the long history of satisfactory relationships between the Midland Board and its teaching staff.

The matter was referred to the education committee headed by James Harty for study and recommendation.

—:—

IN OTHER business, Mrs. Angeline Vranich, chairman of the Community Action Committee's Day Care Center committee at Midland, asked the board serve as the delegate agency to apply for funds to open the center at Presentation Catholic Church.

She said the committee has learned since the last school board meeting that funds can be applied for from the Office of Economic Opportunity. Originally the committee had requested the board include the center's needs in its next request for Elementary Secondary Education Act, Title I, funds.

Henderson asked Mrs. Vranich to submit an official letter of request to the board for action at the March meeting.

Mrs. Vranich reported there are 100 children aged 3-5 who would benefit from the pre-school education program.

Mrs. Willie Burks of the committee also attended.

Miss Bernice Coffin, secretary, was instructed to mail copies of specifications for new doors for the main high school entrance, the auditorium entrance and the entrance to the old gym in an effort to obtain quotations. —:—

HENRY J. KUZMA, high school principal, notified the board that the junior - senior prom has been tentatively set for May 17 at the new gym. The board approved this. Kuzma also reported that the Midland Mothers Athletic Association plans to hold its annual All-Sports banquet May 5 at the CIO Hall.

John Larry Bender and Stephen Choleva, teachers, were authorized to take their advanced math classes on an afternoon field trip to Geneva College Feb. 21. Bender will accompany his Chemistry I Class to a seminar at Buhl Planetarium April 22.

Peduzzi will serve on an evaluating committee for Wilmington High School at New Wilmington March 12-14 at the request of the Midland Atlantic Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

Under an exchange assembly program, the Lincoln High School band was granted permission to perform at an assembly at South Side High School March 1. The South Side Band will present a program during an assembly at Lincoln High School Feb. 23 at 1:35 p.m..

The board, at the recommendation of Henderson, agreed to discontinue computerized student scheduling, since the school is too small to require this additional expense. The scheduling of junior and senior high school students for the next term will be done manually. It has been handled by computer the last two years, and has proven unsatisfactory, according to Henderson.

All-Aluminum Span Urged At Point Pleasant

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP) — A Huntington engineer proposed Monday night that an all - aluminum, double deck bridge be built to replace the Silver Bridge which collapsed in the Ohio River here in December.

Alder F. Castanoli, a consulting mining engineer, also proposed that the aluminum bridge be built on the same piers that supported the Silver Bridge. He made his proposal at a city council meeting, and said he also would present it to state officials.

By using aluminum, he said, it would be one half as heavy but six times stronger than the old bridge. He said it could be built in half the time it would take to build new piers for another type of bridge.

He estimated the cost of an aluminum bridge at $3,895,000 million.

Overran By North Vietnamese

Red Agents And Traitors Believed In Special Camp

KHE SANH, Vietnam (AP) — When the North Vietnamese and their tanks overran the Lang Vei Special Forces Camp last week, the garrison undoubtedly included Communist agents and traitors, informed military sources say.

The Montagnard tribesmen in the Civilian Irregular Defense Group defending the camp four miles west of this U.S. Marine base were hired mercenaries who were given no security check and could quit any time they liked.

Since the U.S. Special Forces began its program of organizing the tribesmen in the mountains years ago, they have been plagued with infiltration by the Beret man who commanded a camp once said he believed up to 30 per cent of his men were Communists.

One senior U.S. officer said that before the Lang Vei attack, a Viet Cong ring was discovered in the camp and was crushed. But this undoubtedly did not eliminate all the Communists, sources here say.

Special Forces officers say the Communists infiltrate the CIDG for two reasons: They want their men inside to help them in any attack, and they need the specialized training in heavy weapons and communications the Green Berets give.

At one time some camp commanders were discussing the advisability of secretly planting electrical mines under machine-gun positions in their camps to be detonated in case, as once happened, traitors turned the guns around during an attack and shot down the camp's defenders.

Not all the traitors have been mountain tribesmen, Special Forces men say. One was a South Vietnamese sergeant who opened the camp's main gate to the attackers.

The problem of ferreting out the Communists in the constantly shifting membership of CIDG teams is unsolvable, one officer said. Too many men drift in and out of the organization, and police records on the Montagnards are virtually nonexistent.

To protect themselves, the American Special Forces team in each camp occupies an inner compound that can be defended against attack from within the camp as well as from without.

THE LESOTHO DIAMOND

Late last year, world wires flashed with news of an important diamond discovery in the small South African country of Lesotho. Its finder was Ernestine Ramoboa, wife of the owner of a small 30 square foot diamond claim. As she sat, casually panning rough gravel, the crystal flashed through and caught her attention. The gem she plucked out weighed 601.25 carats, making it the seventh largest diamond ever discovered.

Her husband, who previously averaged only 25c to 30c per day through diamond finds on his "diggings," sold the huge piece of rough for $302,400. It will now be cut in New York some time this year after careful study, including the creation of practice replicas which will be marked and experimentally "struck" or cleaved. If all goes well, the new owners expect that the stones cut from it will have a retail value of more than $1 million.

Besides its importance to the Ramoboas, the excitement surrounding this new diamond will serve another purpose. It points out to a wide audience that a diamond's value is greatly enhanced by the only thing that man alone can do to it; accurate cutting and polishing to bring out the full beauty of the material. As a member of the American Gem Society, we have long stressed the importance of cutting quality in the diamonds that we sell. A poorly fashioned diamond, regardless of its size, is not as wise a buy as one that meets the finest standards. We will be happy to show this to you in detail at the time of your next diamond purchase.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

'Do Viewers Really Watch?' Jane Wonders

Jane Wyatt is worried about tonight's CBS "Playhouse" she is in with Ralph Bellamy and Gene Hackman.

Hal Humphrey

"The audience really will have to pay attention, since there are flashback scenes in it that actually happened, and then there are others in which the son, Gene Hackman, wishes they had happened that way. It's a very good play, but it's also subtle and I don't think people concentrate much when they watch TV today," says Jane.

-:-

SHE IS absolutely right, of course, and the reason we don't concentrate is that most of the stuff on TV today doesn't require close attention.

One can miss the first 10 minutes of a series episode and still pick up the story with no trouble. Most of the things on TV today have more action than story, anyway.

"I can remember when I used to make a date with my TV set to watch 'Playhouse 90'," adds Jane. "Now we just turn it on when there's nothing else we want to do. I really don't take it seriously any more as a viewer. I also miss Alfred Hitchcock and 'Theater'."

-:-

SOME TIME AGO Jane was in friend's home and they were watching Bob Newhart do a routine as a guest on a TV variety show.

"My friend," says Jane, "walked out of the room and missed Bob's opening where he set up the situation for his monologue. When she came back and looked again, she said, 'Isn't that pretty boring?' I told her no, it was very funny and she'd missed the whole point while out of the room."

Jane believes only one or two people should be watching a TV set anyway. Any more than that provides too much distraction.

"I know as an actress I play to just one or two people and never think of the millions who may be watching," she says.

-:-

"MY FATHER and My Mother" is the title of the upcoming "CBS Playhouse" which Jane shares with Bellamy and Hackman. They are Hackman's father and mother, and he has a young son who was born speechless.

As the burden of this affliction grows in Hackman's mind he looks back to his own childhood for answers. As Jane says, viewers will have to follow the play closely or they'll be lost.

Jane believes that "Father Knows Best," the domestic comedy which she and Robert Young did for six years, was better than most of the comedy series on TV now.

"We rehearsed for two days and shot four days, which is unheard of now. I loved doing it, but never would do another series. That's just part of my life that's closed. After all, I'm a grandmother twice now," Jane says.

-:-

SHE IS NOT as busy as she would like to be with her acting, but can't find enough good parts.

"I like parts with character, and there aren't many of those," Jane points out.

This season she played Mr. Spock's mother on a "Star Trek," which hardly would qualify as a meaty part. Jane also pops up on panel shows now and then, and last year she was moderator - hostess on an ABC daytime series titled Confidential for Women.

She still believes all good actors come from New York, that the experience they get on the stage there better qualifies them for movies. She started on the stage in New York herself.

-:-

"GEORGE SCHAEFER, who directed our 'CBS Playhouse,' says an actor can be more subtle in his movements and with his dialog in TV, and that is true if the viewer is paying attention, but are they now?" asks the skeptical Jane.

Personally, I think most adults watch TV now to relax, as they would read murder mysteries or comic books. There aren't though good dramas on the home screen to tax one's faculties of concentration so most viewers are out of the habit of concentrating on TV programs.

Even most of the news on TV is delivered so gibly and simply that it isn't challenging to our thought powers.

Ex-Ohio State Teacher Nabbed On Dope Charge

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — A former art instructor at Ohio State University was arrested here Sunday and customs agents said they seized $360,000 worth of marijuana from under the floorboards of a 1957 hearse he was driving.

Robert L. Walden, 38, now of New York City, was arrested as he tried to cross an international bridge over the Rio Grande River between Texas and Mexico.

Agent-in-charge Oran P. Puch said Walden and nine other persons were arrested over the weekend in connection with the same raid.

Walden remained in jail here Monday after he failed to post a $15,000 bond on a charge of possession of marijuana.

Would Admit More In Construction

Accord Reported Near On Negroes-Union Rules

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — AFL-CIO construction unions and federal officials were reported close today to agreeing on a set of rules to admit more Negroes into the unions in an attempt to ease longstanding complaints of racial discrimination.

Sources indicated the proposed agreement would withhold tough government sanctions as long as the 18 building trades unions moved successfully on a voluntary basis to open their doors wider to Negroes and other minority groups.

"I think it looks pretty good," said Plumbers Union President Peter T. Schoemann of the chances for solving the issue, which has long been a sore point between Johnson administration officials and the politically powerful labor movement.

The construction unions have been the target of numerous racial bias charges from civil rights groups.

President of the 18 unions of the AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Department, representing some 3.5 million workers, reportedly were ready to act on a final draft of proposed regulations worked out with the Labor Department.

Sources said the proposed agreement would assure the building trades against any government requirement for a certain quota of Negroes in the union's or their apprenticeship training programs.

The unions bitterly opposed previous Labor Department anti-discrimination proposals which they said would have imposed a quota system on them.

Schoemann a year ago was instrumental in killing one Labor Department proposal that would have required regular reports on how many Negroes were enrolled in unions' apprenticeship programs.

"We think the best results would come from a better rapport between top officials of the Labor Department and the building trades," said C. J. Haggerty, president of the trades department at a meeting here.

Haggerty, Schoemann, and several other key union officials have been working for months on the proposed new antidiscrimination plan with Secretary of Labor Department Solicitor Charles Donahue.

Haggerty indicated the proposal would embody a continuing top-level committee of unions and Labor Department officials to try to solve discrimination complaints.

While avoiding any quota formula and emphasizing voluntary action by the unions, the proposed agreement reportedly includes provisions for the Labor Department to press discrimination complaints if a union fails to act.

The Turkaly - Richards Detachment of the Marine Corps League at Midland favors the Department of Massachusetts' resolution that the U.S. retain the Island of Iwo Jima.

Under the plan, it would serve as a National War Memorial Park to those Americans who gave their lives in the Pacific campaign.

The Marine Corps League will observe the anniversary of the flag raising at Iwo Jima Feb. 23.

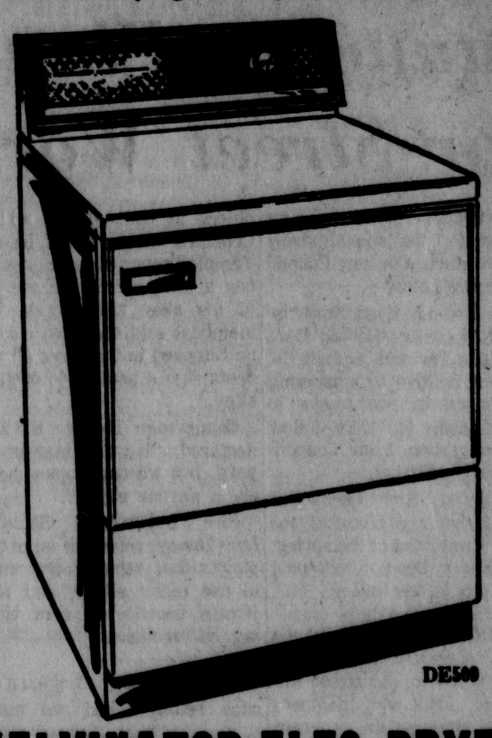

Pat Cody, department senior vice commandant, and Mrs. Cody of the Turkaly-Richards Auxiliary attended the 25th anniversary of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Women Marines Association Saturday night. The Marionettes of World War I also celebrated their golden anniversary at the time.

Cody read the Defense Department's message from President Johnson to the groups upon their anniversaries.

Chester Council Launches Plans For Street Work

Preliminary plans were launched for the annual street program when Chester Council met Monday night.

Clerk Donald Hood was instructed to contact Donald Bare of the Ohio Tar and Asphalt Co. of Canton relative to a meeting with Council in two weeks to begin planning the work following a suggestion from Councilman Charles Kology.

Councilman Roy Cashdollar proposed that one phase of the work be completed in the spring, with the new Council wrapping up the job in the fall .

—:—

CASHDOLLAR pointed out the treasury currently has a balance of $7,500 in the street improvement fund and members should be planning the program now.

Last fall, when Council was unable to have the work completed, members agreed to hold the money until spring.

Councilmen already have prepared a list of streets which are to be given priority and members generally agreed if all is ready the program can begin as soon as warm weather arrives.

Councilman Robert Kincaid asked that blacktop be provided for patching holes and was informed by Kology it already has been ordered.

—:—

COUNCIL discussed with one resident the problem of correcting a private drive through the western end of the community but decided any repairs will have to wait until "the weather breaks."

John Temple discussed the matter of Linger Dr., which he said has fallen into such a state of disrepair that no emergency vehicles could pass along the road. Temple said several residents who use the thoroughfare have damaged the undercarriages of their vehicles. Drains and blacktop are needed to rectify the problem, he said.

Temple suggested if Council cannot repair the drive, members might consider opening an alley which runs along the same route.

But Cashdollar pointed out that if only one resident would object to opening the alley, Council's hands would be tied. Temple reported one resident has a lawn running in the path of the alley right-of-way, but members said the lawn could be removed in the event all residents sign a petition to open the alley.

Councilman Thomas Bowen declared, "We can tear up the yard, but we can't open the alley if anyone objects."

Fire Department Secretary Lee Haney reported on complaints that vehicles are unable to use many alleys, and some streets because of cars blocking intersections.

—:—

KOLOGY reported Council once before asked the mayor to instruct Police Chief Audley Campbell to check on cars which are left on streets for an extended period of time.

Haney said about three days each week no emergency vehicle, truck or car can get through. Church Alley between Dunn and 5th Sts. because of autos blocking the path.

"We've told the chief a half-a-dozen times" to check it and we shouldn't have to talk about it here. "Tell him to open his eyes," Cashdollar declared.

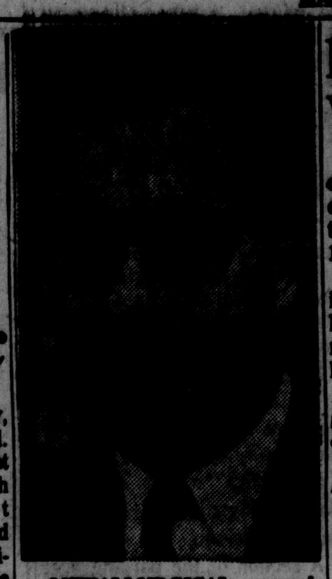

Council temporarily suspended a motion that would assess the Kiwanis Club $8 a month for rental of the City Hall auditorium.

After a discussion concerning a disagreement over the matter, Council decided to see if the club makes an attempt to donate something for the use each week in th auditorium and kitchen facilities.

"Let's wait and see," Kology declared.

The recommendation to hold up the rental action came from Hood. He was supported by Kincaid, who opposed the action from the beginning. "We jumped first," he said, "not them; it's a public building."

"I still think we ought to make offices up there," Cashdollar said. He suggested a meeting room large enough for Kiwanis and other civic groups could be made and said there still would be enough room for office space.

METALLURGICAL and magnetic research expert Dr. Thomas O. Paine has been named by President Johnson as deputy administrator of National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Paine, 46, of Santa Barbara, Calif., succeeds Dr. Robert C. Seamans.

Cashdollar reported there are "several" businessmen who would like to have additional space.

—:—

HOOD pointed out Council currently spends nearly 10 per cent of its budget for maintenance of the building.

At the conclusion of the meeting Cashdollar urged Council to meet "to straighten out the street department and caretakers. They should be shaken up or replaced," he remarked.

Action was taken formalizing a schedule of 24-hour police protection outlined earlier.

Kology reported he has been asked to have a street light installed in Church alley near the Catholic Church.

Remittances were $5,923.05, with bills $2,676.48.

Program Outlined For Board

Wellsville Spurs Vocational Plan

Plans for a vocational program in Business Education were presented to the Wellsville Board of Education by Supt. Donald Lowe during Monday night's meeting at the high school.

Lowe said he and Miss Mary Jenkins, board members, met with Gordon Eddy of the Ohio Department of Education in January to discuss the program, with the areas of general clerical and stenographic education selected as the most feasible.

—:—

EDDY SAID the programs would provide the student with a "salable skill when graduated from high school."

William Ferrall, president of the Board, declared his support of the program, pointing out that most graduates do not continue on to college and present courses are geared to the requirements of the college-bound.

The program proposed by Eddy includes general courses in the 9th and 10th grades, with one of two business courses each year, but calls for intensive study of the business field in the 11th and 12 grades. Blocks (self - contained three - hour periods) would be introduced at this point, which, for example could include Typing II, Bookkeeping I and Office Machines given in three consecutive hours.

Basic requirements for the program would include two additional classrooms, two more teachers, typewriters, desks, adding machines, and chairs at an estimated total cost of $19,940.

Additional "recommended" equipment would include transcribers, a shorthand lab, offset press and varityper at a total cost of some $9,550.

The addition of the units also would bring in proportional funds under Senate Bill 360, amounting to $13,073, Lowe added. He pointed out the teacher's salaries would be paid by the state.

—:—

EXPENSES for lights, heat, and custodial care would fall on the school board, Lowe added.

The main barrier of implementing the program is the addition of classrooms, he said.

The estimate of $24,000 for classrooms to be built above the Industrial Arts area was presented at the last meeting.

Lowe presented a letter from Rep. Wayne L. Hays stating the school is not in a "federally-affected" area, and, therefore, could not qualify for funds from the federal government for the building project.

Lowe then requested and received permission from the board, to go to Columbus to consult on funds.

Edgar Hare toured the high school Industrial Arts areas Jan. 22 and reported conditions need to be improved, with the shop presently overcrowded.

—:—

LOWE reported Title III had been changed to give schools $30 per unit as opposed to the original $25 per unit, which would provide Wellsville $6,540 instead of $3,999. He suggested this additional money be earmarked for improvements in the Industrial Arts courses and classrooms.

The board voted funds to send the shop teachers to an Industrial Arts meeting in Columbus March 14-16 in response to a recommendation by Hare.

In his report, Lowe recommended and the board agreed, to accept an application from the Immaculate Conception School to participate in the program for Auxiliary Services for non - public schools.

Under this program, Lowe explained, as provided in Senate Bill 350, the public school can share some equipment and teachers with the non-public schools. The state provides additional funds for this purpose. Records of the nonprofit school's expenditures of these funds are kept by the clerk of the public school board, Lowe added.

Lowe reported the drapes in the high school have been cleaned, and new ones ordered. Also, additional electrical outlets have been installed in the reading and typing rooms.

—:—

ACTION ON the superintendents recommended salary schedule for secretaries was postponed when a motion failed to receive a second.

The board approved the recommendations of the superintendent and to transfer Jeri Ferrall from the Neighborhood Youth Office and federal programs to the Garfield and Fairview buildings.

Mrs. Mary Jane Frontone, Mrs. Shirley Prescott and Mr. Paul Blevins were added to the teacher substitute list after approval by the board.

The board also acted on the recommendation of Lowe to appoint Joyn Sawyer and George Lawton instructors for drivers education. The instructors will be paid $5 an hour for teaching the course added to the school's curriculum the first of this month. The courses are offered two nights a week, Lowe added.

The instruction auto, after several delays, will be presented to the school Tuesday afternoon.

—:—

LOWE announced a county-wide calendar has been drawn up for the 1968-69 school year. This will mean all the county schools will begin classes and take vacations at the same time, he pointed out. The schedule includes a two - week vacation for Christmas (Dec. 23-Jan. 6.) The board voted its approval of the schedule.

Lowe reported the Ohio Survey Tests have been returned and Michael Stutyak will attend the next board meeting to explain how Wellsville students compare with other students.

The board approved Dr. Perry Gresham, president of Bethany College, as guest speaker during commencement exercises.

The board announced a tentative date of Saturday to inspect the condition of high school classrooms.

Mrs. Donna Allison, representing the teachers, reported on her participation in the reading workshop at Lakewood Jan. 26. She said Wellsville is as well, if not better equipped than most other schools so far as reading courses are concerned. She explained that many schools do not offer the subject.

Correspondence from the family of Kenneth R. Cooper expressed appreciation for the flowers sent by the board.

A letter from Harry Stockdale of the county sanitation department reported a test in January of the water at Fairview School showed no contamination, and that the supply is properly protected.

In application from Helen M. Platt for a position in the cafeteria was received by the board.

ACTION ON the superintendents recommended salary schedule for secretaries was postponed when a motion failed to receive a second.

The board approved the recommendations of the superintendent and to transfer Jeri Ferrall from the Neighborhood Youth Office and federal programs to the Garfield and Fairview buildings.

Mrs. Mary Jane Frontone, Mrs. Shirley Prescott and Mr. Paul Blevins were added to the teacher substitute list after approval by the board.

The board also acted on the recommendation of Lowe to appoint Joyn Sawyer and George Lawton instructors for drivers education. The instructors will be paid $5 an hour for teaching the course added to the school's curriculum the first of this month. The courses are offered two nights a week, Lowe added.

The instruction auto, after several delays, will be presented to the school Tuesday afternoon.

—:—

LOWE announced a county-wide calendar has been drawn up for the 1968-69 school year. This will mean all the county schools will begin classes and take vacations at the same time, he pointed out. The schedule includes a two - week vacation for Christmas (Dec. 23-Jan. 6.) The board voted its approval of the schedule.

Lowe reported the Ohio Survey Tests have been returned and Michael Shutyak will attend the next board meeting to explain how Wellsville students compare with other students.

The board approved Dr. Perry Gresham, president of Bethany College, as guest speaker during commencement exercises.

The board announced a tentative date of Saturday to inspect the condition of high school classrooms.

Mrs. Donna Allison, representing the teachers, reported on her participation in the reading workshop at Lakewood Jan. 26. She said Wellsville is as well, if not better equipped than most other schools so far as reading courses are concerned. She explained that many schools do not offer the subject.

Correspondence from the family of Kenneth R. Cooper expressed appreciation for the flowers sent by the board.

A letter from Harry Stockdale of the county sanitation department reported a test in January of the water at Fairview School showed no contamination, and that the supply is properly protected.

In application from Helen M. Piatt for a position in the cafeteria was received by the board.

DEAR FOLKS: I'm pushing 80 real hard and have been sewing many years. I finally figured out something that has bothered me all this time.

You know all the dust and lint that accumulates around the bobbin in a sewing machine and clogs it up? Well, the best way I've found to remove it is when you change the color of thread on your bobbin, just BLOW, BLOW, BLOW . . . while it's out!

So instead of letting this stuff collect and clog your machine, blow it out each time. It's sure much easier than cleaning it out with tweezers or brush and besides, you might save a repair bill.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: We are raising our "second" family and I am learning more about motherhood now than when the older children were home.

Several times a day our four-year-old will come in from play and announce, "It's time for some lovin'." Whatever I'm doing is set aside while we visit.

He tells me what he's been doing or sometimes we talk about "When I grow up, Mom . . ." It's such a delightful time and since it's at his suggestion, it is even MORE precious.

Our small ones grow up and away from us so soon — especially after they start to school — and boys soon reach that stage where it's "sissy" to be loved by adults.

When the older children used ito come to me for loving, I was usually too busy with my chores to stop. But as we grow older we realize that our children are more important than that waxed floor!

Forgive my amateur attempt at child psychology.

"TEX".

Forgive you? Never! We all love you.

DEAR HELOISE: As we especially like mashed potato salad and I was caught without anything but instant potatoes, I decided to give them a try. Just cooked according to directions. The potatoes were done and cool by the time the eggs had finished cooking.

Not even an expert could have told this instant potato salad from "the kind mother used to make."

MRS. J. SWAIM.

DEAR HELOISE: My husband discovered an easier way to wash the car.

He used an insecticide sprayer, the kind that attaches to any ordinary garden hose and has a little hole in the top of the attachment. When insecticide is wanted, you put a finger on the hole and it has a tube which siphons the insecticide up to the hose and mixes with the water and sprays it. If you don't want insecticide, remove your finger and it sprays just clear water.

My husband put a mild detergent mixed with some water in the sprayer jar. This gave him soapy water to wash with and clear water from the attached hose to rinse with. All right there in one hand.

The sprayer will hold enough soapy mix to do an average size car. Just be sure to dilute the detergent a bit so it won't be too thick for the siphon tube.

ANN DE LAND.

For years I've washed windows and screens this way. And who but you would have ever thought to use it on a car? You're great. Much thanks.

DEAR HELOISE: My neighbor made a cute toy for her dog by tying an old tennis ball in one of the strong mesh bags the onions come in.

Her dog has a "ball" with his bouncing bag.

DEAR FOLKS: Now don't laugh at this. You might be surprised how much your kids love it.

You know those packages of powdered drink mixes you buy which come in grape, orange, strawberry, etc.

Well, instead of plain old cinnamon toast for breakfast, try using some of this. It's absolutely the greatest.

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — Earl G. Ward, 67, a retired vice president of Ford Motor Co., died Saturday at his winter home in Vero Beach, Fla.

The DOCTOR Says

By DR. W. G. BRANDSTADT

Q—Our color television set was one of the ones shown to be faulty. Even though the defective tube was replaced we had used it daily for about a year. Could any serious damage have been done to us and our children?

Dr. Brandstadt

A—In the faulty sets, the leakage of radiation was directed downward and toward the back of the set. It could, therefore, have caused damage only to a child playing for prolonged periods directly under the set. Even though this was a potential hazard, there is no evidence that these sets caused any actual damage.

Q—My daughter, 16, has a nasal septum that is pushed to one side. Can this be corrected?

A—Yes. The cartilage can be removed from the septum. This operation, a submucous resection, will improve her breathing space.

Q—I have frequent nosebleeds. My mother and aunts had them and my daughter has them. Is this condition hereditary? What causes them and what can be done for them?

A—There is a hereditary type of nosebleed that is more common in females than in males. Other causes include local irritation and high blood pressure. You can prevent the formation of crusts in your nose by using a very little petrolatum jelly or mineral oil in the nostrils. When a nosebleed occurs the victim should remain quiet in a sitting position while someone gets an icebag and places it on the back of her neck. The victim's head should be tilted forward and down. Pinching the nose tightly for 10 minutes is another effective means of controlling a nosebleed.

Q—I have a red nose. What can be done to tone it down?

A—Although a red nose is often due to cirrhosis of the liver, it is also seen as a hereditary trait. There is no treatment except the use of masking cosmetics.

Q—Does a podiatrist have the authority to operate?

A—A podiatrist is a doctor whose training is limited to the treatment of foot ailments. He is licensed to use drugs, X ray, surgery or any other form of treatment known to medical science.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne L. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answers individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

IRA HARGE, traded by the Pittsburgh Pipers to Oakland, set an ABA record with 32 rebounds Friday night.

MARTINS FERRY, which will visit Memorial Auditorium Saturday night, is ranked second in the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference AAA standings with a 12-3 record. COLUMBUS (AP) — Things are relatively static in the Associated Press high school basketball poll.

East Liverpool, in eighth place ever since the poll started, is there again this week, and Columbus East, first every week, is still in the top spot. The same teams that were in the Top 10 last week are there this week.

Beaver Local moved up to a tie for 37th and Steubenville is tied for 27th. There was a new leader in the Class A ranks, Northwestern of Wayne County.

East, now 15-0 and bidding to wrap up its second consecutive unbeaten regular season campaign with a victory this weekend, garnered 232 points from the sports writers and sportscasters who vote.

Northwestern of Wayne County, running a close second to Southwestern of Ross all season, finally climbed into first place after the Panthers were upset by Logan Elm 63-61 last Friday.

Northwestern, 16-1, and two-time state champion, collected 135 points, some 14 more than unbeaten Western of Pike County, which sports a 19-0 record.

In AA, all the top 10 clubs turned in victories last weekend but there were some shifts in positions.

Toledo Central, 16-0, moved up a notch to third as Cleveland East, 14-0, finished with regular season work, dropped to fourth.

Middletown, 16-1, clung to second place but a distant 73 points back of Columbus East.

Newark, 15-1, was fifth, followed by Cuyahoga Falls, 16-1, Columbus Linden, 13-2, East Liverpool, 14-1, Toledo Libbey, 15-1, and Canton McKinley, 13-4.

Kentucky Beats Vols, Takes Over SEC Lead

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pistol Pete Maravich gave it to Georgia with both guns but when the dust had cleared, the Bulldogs had survived a lot better than Louisiana State.

Maravich, the LSU sophomore who leads the country's collegiate basketball scorers, poured in 51 points against Georgia Monday night but the barrage couldn't overcome a balanced Bulldog attack that produced a 78-73 Southeastern Conference victory.

And while Maravich was shooting up Georgia, Baron Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats slipped into the SEC lead by edging Tennessee 60-59.

The eighth ranked Wildcats pulled it out in the final minutes with three sophomores—Mike Casey, Mike Pratt and Dan Issel—doing the bulk of the job. It was seventh-ranked Tennessee's second straight SEC loss and dropped the Vols one half game back of Kentucky.

Meanwhile, North Carolina, ranked third in The Associated Press poll, rolled to its 16th straight victory, beating North Carolina State 96-84.

Charlie Scott, another soph, poured in 34 points for the Tar Heels. Larry Miller had 24 and became the third highest scorer in NC history with 1,714. Eddie Biedenbach led the losers with 28.

Georgia had four players in double figures with Bob Lienhard's 28 points tops. Lienhard, a 6-foot-11 soph, hit 12 of 19 from the floor and four of nine free throws. Maravich connected on 20 of 47 field goals and was 11 for 18 from the foul line.

Casey, who led Kentucky's scorers with 17 points, put the Wildcats on top 58-57 with one minute left and Issel, who had 15, followed with another basket. Then the Wildcats held Tennessee off. Pratt, Rupp's other soph, finished with 15.

"What magnificent ball those lads played," exulted Rupp afterwards. "The fine thing about this game was that those boys didn't lose their poise at all."

Henry Tyson scored 23 points, 18 of them in the first half as Dartmouth nipped Cornell 64-63 in an Ivy League game.

Texas-El Paso romped over Arizona State 87-69 as Andy White hit seven of his first eight shots. White finished with 21 points and Nate Archibald led the Miners with 22.

In other games, Providence topped DePaul 71-60, Oklahoma City ripped Denver 100-86, Kansas State tripped Creighton 85-75, Colorado dropped Missouri 79-76 in overtime and Georgia Tech whipped Jacksonville 97-77.

Judy Nagel Leads Slalom, Allen Out

BULLETIN

CHAMROUSSE, France (AP) —Marielle Goitschel of France won the women's slalom today in the Winter Olympics as misfortune again struck the United States ski team and left it wihout a medal.

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — The United States Alpine ski team, beset by injuries through the early part of the Winter Olympics Games, stood poised on the brink of a major victory today—with spunky teenagers Judy Nagel and Kiki Cutter carrying the medal hopes in the women' special slalom despite the disqualification of two other American contenders.

Judy, a 16-year-old latecomer to the U.S. Olympic squad from Enumclaw, Wash., streaked into the lead over favored Marielle Goitschel of France and Nancy Greene of Canada in the first of two slalom runs on the slopes of Chamrousse.

Kiki, 18, of Bend, Ore., also was among the leaders as the girls readied themselves for the final swoop down the course.

But Wendy Allen of San Pedro, Calif., was disqualified for missing a gate after posting the best time of all 49 entrants and Rosie Fortna of Warren, Vt., also was set down after flashing into a contending position.

Bulldogs Face North

Beavers Meet South In Sectional Opener

Beaver Local, 15-2, seeded fourth in the Youngstown sectional AA basketball tournament, will meet Youngstown South, 9-6, in the first round at 9:30 p.m. Feb. 23.

Third - seeded East Palestine, 13-3, will meet Youngstown North, 6-8, at 8 p.m. the same night, with Campbell Memorial, 10-7, and Boardman, 9-8, clashing in the 6:30 opener of the triple - header at South Field House.

The Beaver Local - South winner will meet the Campbell-Boardman winner in the quarter - finals, with Ursuline, 6-10, which got a bye, meeting the North - East Palestine winner. All these games are lower-bracket games.

The two top - seeded teams, Salem, 10-7, and Youngstown East, 10-6, are both in the upper bracket. Salem takes on Rayen, 1-15, in the first round and the winner of that game meets the Cardinal Mooney, 4-12, Struthers, 9-8, winner. Poland, 2-4, drew a bye and will meet the winner of the East-Woodrow Wilson, 7-8, game.

The pairing procedures were different this year than in the past. The coaches voted on the four teams to be seeded, and then the other teams drew for order of choice. Poland and Ursuline, drawing the first two pills, took the byes. The other teams then filled the places, leaving one space open in each bracket. Then the four seeded teams picked the brackets they wanted, so Beaver Local got the last choice and was stuck with South.

There are 150 adult tickets and 300 student tickets for the first round game on sale at Beaver Local High School. Student tickets are $.75, but all tickets will be $1.25 at the door.

U.S. Wins Hockey Game; Killy Gets Another Gold

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — The much-maligned U.S. hockey team has sounded a grim warning to future opponents in the Winter Olympic Games.

"We are going to do some killing from here on," Coach Murray Williamson said after the United States had stormed to an 8-1 victory over West Germany Monday, the Americans' first victory after four straight losses.

"We needed a game like this," the young, Canadian-born coach said. "We are not giving anything to anyone. From here on in, look out for the United States."

But it came too late to make a great deal of difference, except for pride.

"If we'd started the tournament with this game, we'd be hanging tough," he said, almost wistfully.

As it is, it's impossible for the Americans to gain a medal. They're 1-4 with two games remaining in the round robin tournament. Russia, Czechoslovakia and Sweden are 4-0 with three games remaining. Canada is 3-1 with three games to go.

The United States was shut out of the medals again Monday, but Billy Kidd turned in the day's best performance in the giant slalom, won by France's fantastic Jean-Claude Killy.

Killy took a second heat run down the 57-gate, 1,780-meter course in 1:46.54 for a combined time of 3:29.28 and an easy victory.

Kidd, of Stowe, Vt., a silver medalist in the event four years ago, had the day's best time, 1:46.46, which lifted him from eighth after the first run to fifth over-all with a combined time of 3:32.37.

Jim Heuga of Squaw Valley, Calif., the bronze medal winner in 1964, finished 10th with a time of 1:46.43 for 3:33.89.

"'No medals today," the dejected Kidd said. "But we still have another chance."

That will be in the special slalom Friday and Saturday when Killy seeks a third gold medal. He won the downhill last week and seeks to become only the second man in history to sweep all three.

Tony Sailer of Austria turned the trick in 1956, and predicts that Killy can't match it.

"'I don't think Killy can do it," Sailer said. "He has too much pressure on him. Besides, he's past his peak." And he added that the slalom courses are easier now than in his day.

Killy, a handsome, 24-year-old, retorted that today's competition "is much more difficult. I think in winning two gold medals I already have matched Sailer's feat in 1956. If I should win the slalom, it would be a much greater achievement."

Aside from Killy, the Americans' achievements were modest at best.

Jeanne Ashworth, Wilmington, N.Y., managed only a 10th-place finish behind winner Johanna Schut of the Netherlands in the women's 3,000-meter speed skating and Army Cpl. Ralph C. Wakely, Murray, Utah, was the top American, 27th, in the biathlon. His time was one hour, 27 minutes, 32.9 seconds. The event was won by Magnar Solberg of Norway in 1:13:45.9.

Warm weather and rain forced still another postponement in the singles luge (small sled) race.

The hockey team scored four times in the last 10 minutes of the second period to break it open against West Germany.

Doug Volmer of Minneapolis had two goals in the burst, while Lou Nanne, Minneapolis and Army Pvt. Larry Pleau, stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky., had the others.

Don Ross of St. Paul, Joe Morrison of Minneapolis, John Cunniff of Boston and Paul Hurley of Bloomington, Minn., were the other American scorers.

COLUMBUS (AP) — Things are relatively static in the Associated Press high school basketball poll.

East Liverpool, in eighth place ever since the poll started, is there again this week, and Columbus East, first every week, is still in the top spot. The same teams that were in the Top 10 last week are there this week.

Beaver Local moved up to a tie for 37th and Steubenville is tied for 27th. There was a new leader in the Class A ranks, Northwestern of Wayne County.

East, now 15-0 and bidding to wrap up its second consecutive unbeaten regular season campaign with a victory this weekend, garnered 232 points from the sports writers and sportscasters who vote.

The Tigers seem a cinch to week's final poll as the state's schoolboy quintets head into sectional play.

Northwestern of Wayne County, running a close second to Southwestern of Ross all season, finally climbed into first place after the Panthers were upset by Logan Elm 63-61 last Friday.

Northwestern, 16-1, and two-time state champion, collected 135 points, some 34 more than unbeaten Western of Pike County, which sports a 19-0 record.

In AA, all the top 10 clubs turned in victories last weekend but there were some shifts in positions.

Toledo Central, 16-0, moved up a notch to third as Cleveland East, 14-0, finished with regular season work, dropped to fourth.

Middletown, 16-1, clung to second place but a distant 73 points back of Columbus East.

Newark, 15-1, was fifth, followed by Cuyahoga Falls, 16-1, Columbus Linden, 13-2, East Liverpool, 14-1, Toledo Libbey, 15-1, and Canton McKinley, 13-4.

Convoy Crestview, 18-0, holds third again in Class A followed by Vaon, 15-0, Streetsboro, 17-0, Southeastern, 16-2, St. Henry, 18 1, Licking Valley, 17-1, Canal Winchester, 17-1 and Dixie, 15-2.

Dixie crashed into the elite circle for the first time as No. 8 Guernsey Catholic lost for the second time and tumbled to a tie for 14th.

East Liverpool improved its fine defensive average to 45.5, far ahead of the 56.8 of East Palestine. Beaver Local continues to lead in offense with a 74.7 average, with Stanton next at 66.4.

Kentucky Beats Vols, Takes Over SEC Lead

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pistol Pete Maravich gave it to Georgia with both guns but when the dust had cleared, the Bulldogs had survived a lot better than Louisiana State.

Maravich, the LSU sophomore who leads the country's collegiate basketball scorers, poured in 51 points against Georgia Monday night but the barrage couldn't overcome a balanced Bulldog attack that produced a 78-73 Southeastern Conference victory.

And while Maravich was shooting up Georgia, Baron Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats slipped into the SEC lead by edging Tennessee 60-59.

The eighth ranked Wildcats pulled it out in the final minutes with three sophomores—Mike Casey, Mike Pratt and Dan Issel—doing the bulk of the job. It was seventh-ranked Tennessee's second straight SEC loss and dropped the Vols one half game back of Kentucky.

Meanwhile, North Carolina, ranked third in The Associated Press poll, rolled to its 16th straight victory, beating North Carolina State 96-84.

Charlie Scott, another soph, poured in 34 points for the Tar Heels. Larry Miller had 24 and became the third highest scorer in NC history with 1,714. Eddie Biedenbach led the losers with 28.

Georgia had four players in double figures with Bob Lienhard's 28 points tops. Lienhard, a 6-foot-11 soph, hit 12 of 19 from the floor and four of nine free throws. Maravich connected on 20 of 47 field goals and was 11 for 18 from the foul line.

Casey, who led Kentucky's scorers with 17 points, put the Wildcats on top 58-57 with one minute left and Issel, who had 15, followed with another basket. Then the Wildcats held Tennessee off. Pratt, Rupp's other soph, finished with 15.

"What magnificent ball those lads played," exulted Rupp afterwards. "The fine thing about this game was that those boys didn't lose their poise at all."

Henry Tyson scored 23 points, 18 of them in the first half as Dartmouth nipped Cornell 64-63 in an Ivy League game.

Texas-El Paso romped over Arizona State 87-69 as Andy White hit seven of his first eight shots. White finished with 21 points and Nate Archibald led the Miners with 22.

In other games, Providence topped DePaul 71-60, Oklahoma City ripped Denver 100-86, Kansas State tripped Creighton 85-75, Colorado dropped Missouri 79-76 in overtime and Georgia Tech whipped Jacksonville 97-77.

Judy Nagel Leads Slalom, Allen Out

BULLETIN

CHAMROUSSE, France (AP) —Marielle Goitschel of France won the women's slalom today in the Winter Olympics as misfortune again struck the United States ski team and left it wihout a medal.

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — The United States Alpine ski team, beset by injuries through the early part of the Winter Olympics Games, stood poised on the brink of a major victory today—with spunky teenagers Judy Nagel and Kiki Cutter carrying the medal hopes in the women' special slalom despite the disqualification of two other American contenders.

Judy, a 16-year-old latecomer to the U.S. Olympic squad from Enumclaw, Wash., streaked into the lead over favored Marielle Goitschel of France and Nancy Greene of Canada in the first of two slalom runs on the slopes of Chamrousse.

Kiki, 18, of Bend, Ore., also was among the leaders as the girls readied themselves for the final swoop down the course.

But Wendy Allen of San Pedro, Calif., was disqualified for missing a gate after posting the best time of all 49 entrants and Rosie Fortna of Warren, Vt., also was set down after flashing into a contending position.

Bulldogs Face North

Beavers Meet South In Sectional Opener

Beaver Local, 15-2, seeded fourth in the Youngstown sectional AA basketball tournament, will meet Youngstown South, 9-6, in the first round at 9:30 p.m. Feb. 23.

Third - seeded East Palestine, 13-3, will meet Youngstown North, 6-8, at 8 p.m. the same night, with Campbell Memorial, 10-7, and Boardman, 9-8, clashing in the 6:30 opener of the triple - header at South Field House.

The Beaver Local - South winner will meet the Campbell-Boardman winner in the quarter - finals, with Ursuline, 6-10, which got a bye, meeting the North - East Palestine winner. All these games are lower-bracket games.

The two top - seeded teams, Salem, 10-7, and Youngstown East, 10-6, are both in the upper bracket. Salem takes on Rayen, 1-15, in the first round and the winner of that game meets the Cardinal Mooney, 4-12, Struthers, 9-8, winner. Poland, 2-4, drew a bye and will meet the winner of the East-Woodrow Wilson, 7-8, game.

The pairing procedures were different this year than in the past. The coaches voted on the four teams to be seeded, and then the other teams drew for order of choice. Poland and Ursuline, drawing the first two pills, took the byes. The other teams then filled the places, leaving one space open in each bracket. Then the four seeded teams picked the brackets they wanted, so Beaver Local got the last choice and was stuck with South.

There are 150 adult tickets and 300 student tickets for the first round game on sale at Beaver Local High School. Student tickets are $.75, but all tickets will be $1.25 at the door.

U.S. Wins Hockey Game; Killy Gets Another Gold

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — The much-maligned U.S. hockey team has sounded a grim warning to future opponents in the Winter Olympic Games.

"We are going to do some killing from here on," Coach Murray Williamson said after the United States had stormed to an 8-1 victory over West Germany Monday, the Americans' first victory after four straight losses.

"We needed a game like this," the young, Canadian-born coach said. "We are not giving anything to anyone. From here on in, look out for the United States."

But it came too late to make a great deal of difference, except for pride.

"If we'd started the tournament with this game, we'd be hanging tough," he said, almost wistfully.

As it is, it's impossible for the Americans to gain a medal. They're 1-4 with two games remaining in the round robin tournament. Russia, Czechoslovakia and Sweden are 4-0 with three games remaining. Canada is 3-1 with three games to go.

The United States was shut out of the medals again Monday, but Billy Kidd turned in the day's best performance in the giant slalom, won by France's fantastic Jean-Claude Killy.

Killy took a second heat run down the 57-gate, 1,780-meter course in 1:46.54 for a combined time of 3:29.28 and an easy victory.

Kidd, of Stowe, Vt., a silver medalist in the event four years ago, had the day's best time, 1:46.46, which lifted him from eighth after the first run to fifth over-all with a combined time of 3:32.37.

Jim Heuga of Squaw Valley, Calif., the bronze medal winner in 1964, finished 10th with a time of 1:48.43 for 3:33.89.

"'No medals today," the dejected Kidd said. "But we still have another chance."

That will be in the special slalom Friday and Saturday when Killy seeks a third gold medal. He won the downhill last week and seeks to become only the second man in history to sweep all three.

Tony Sailer of Austria turned the trick in 1956, and predicts that Killy can't match it.

"'I don't think Killy can do it," Sailer said. "He has too much pressure on him. Besides, he's past his peak." And he added that the slalom courses are easier now than in his day.

Killy, a handsome, 24-year-old, retorted that today's competition "is much more difficult. I think in winning two gold medals I already have matched Sailer's feat in 1956. If I should win the slalom, it would be a much greater achievement."

Aside from Killy, the Americans' achievements were modest at best.

Jeanne Ashworth, Wilmington, N.Y., managed only a 10th-place finish behind winner Johanna Schut of the Netherlands in the women's 3,000-meter speed skating and Army Cpl. Ralph C. Wakely, Murray, Utah, was the top American, 27th, in the biathlon. His time was one hour, 27 minutes, 32.9 seconds. The event was won by Magnar Solberg of Norway in 1:13:45.9.

Warm weather and rain forced still another postponement in the singles luge (small sled) race.

The hockey team scored four times in the last 10 minutes of the second period to break it open against West Germany.

Doug Volmer of Minneapolis had two goals in the burst, while Lou Nanne, Minneapolis and Army Pvt. Larry Pleau, stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky., had the others.

Don Ross of St. Paul, Joe Morrison of Minneapolis, John Cunniff of Boston and Paul Hurley of Bloomington, Minn., were the other American scorers.

Somerset Scores 43; Warley Hits 16 In Row

By The Associated Press

Forty-three was the magic number in the American Basketball Association Monday night.

That was the number of points poured in by three seperate players. Cincy Powell shattered a Dallas scoring record with his 43 in a 114-101 victory over Denver, snapping the Chaparrals' six-game losing string.

On the West Coast, Ben Warley and Willie Somerset matched that total as Warley's Anaheim club nipped Houston and Somerset, 145-142 in overtime.

Warley also set an ABA record, hitting 16 straight baskets, snapping the previous mark of 10 by teammate Lefty Thomas, set last month.

In other ABA games, New Jersey downed New Orleans 118-109 and Kentucky stopped Eastern Division leader Pittsburgh 131-107.

In the only National Basketball Association game, Chicago tripped Cincinnati 112-104 in overtime.

Powell, who set the previous Dallas scoring record Sunday against Minnesota, hitting for 41 points, wasted little time in breaking it as he sparked Dallas to an early lead and the Chaps never were headed. Larry Jones topped Denver with 23 points.

Warley began his streak in the second quarter, hitting on six straight shots to put Anaheim ahead 70-65 at the half after the Amigos had trailed earlier by 14 points. Warley ripped off 10 more in a row in a torrid third quarter which saw Anaheim streak ahead 87-71.

Then Somerset, a 5-foot-10 guard, triggered a tie for Houston at 129-129 after regulation time.

Te Americans reeled off five straight points just before halftime for an 11-point edge and took their third straight victory. Walt Simon led New Jersey with 24 points. Red Robbins had 30 for the Buce.

Jm Ligon's 27 rebounds, a team record, and 21 points paced the Colonels to their easy victory over Pittsburgh. Connie Hawkins had 25 points for the Pipers.

Jerry Sloan's two jump shots in overtime gave the Bulls their overtime decision over the Royals, who played without the injured Oscar Robertson.

Clem Haskins' basket with nine seconds remaining in regulation play had tied the game 101-101. The Royals managed to score only five points in the last 8:42, including the overtime.

Connie Dierking, with 33 points, led Cincinnati. Jerry Lucas added 34 rebounds. Bob Boozer and Jim Washington had 19 points for the Bulls.

Ohio State Beaten; Big 10 Race Tightens

By The Associated Press

One thing is certain. The Big Ten basketball race isn't a runaway this year.

Ohio State's hopes for a title were slowed down Monday night when the Buckeyes dropped an 86-78 decision to Wisconsin on the Badgers floor.

The Buckeyes still hold a shaky lead in the conference with a 6-2 mark. But they could be joined at the top tonight if Northwestern beats Minnesota.

Northwestern and Iowa are right behind Ohio State with 5-2 records, followed by Illinois, 4-2. Wisconsin put itself back in the picture, upping its conference slate to 5-3.

Ohio State has six conference games left, three at home and three on the road. The next game is at Minnesota Saturday.

All five of Wisconsin's starters scored in double figures, led by Joe Franklin with 23. The Badgers repaid Ohio State for an earlier 86-64 defeat suffered in Columbus.

Ohio State learned that Bill Hosket is okay after suffering a knee injury Saturday. The big forward topped the Buckeye scoring with 23 points.

Elsewhere in Ohio college action,

Ohio University put together back-to-back victories for the first time this season as the Bobcats dumped Northern Illinois 85-76 at Athens. Gerald McKee sparked the Bobcats with 30 points.

Xavier continued its string of bad luck, losing to Fairfield, Conn., 64-60. Fairfield led from the start in handing Xavier its 14th defeat against eight victories. John Zeides had 20 points for the Muskies.

Heidelberg, led by Paul Brown with 20 points, upset Defiance, 79-66. Oakland City, Ind. beat Wilberforce 105-92, West Liberty State defeated Steubenville 81-66 and Alliance, Pa., whipped Cleveland State 71-56.

Salem Wins 10th, Beats South

YOUNGSTOWN — Salem ran its record to 10-7 with a 79-70 win over Youngstown South here Saturday night.

The Quakers were led by George Spack, who netted 21, while Mark Equizi had 17 and Rick Liber 16. Fred Cooper had 21 to pace the losers, now 9-6.

New Garden Ice Machine Works Fine

NEW YORK (AP) — The stockholders can rest easy. The New Madison Square Garden makes ice.

Emile Francis, manager-coach of the New York Rangers, is a stickler for details and he decided to make sure his team would have something to skate on when they make their first appearance in their new home Sunday.

So, Francis ordered a rare Monday evening workout after a tough three-game-in-four-night stretch. He seemed satisfied with the $43 million dollar structure and its one-quarter inch layer of ice afterwards.

"It was our only chance to get the feel of it," said Francis. "I didn't want to have them playing on it without at least one practice on it."

Then Francis winked.

"Besides, I wanted to make sure we wouldn't wind up with a swimming pool when we turned the water on."

Maple Leafs Drop Second On Coast Trip

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don't hand Punch Imlach that line about going West, young man.

Coach Imlach took his Toronto Maple Leafs West for a couple of games with two National Hockey League expansion clubs —Oakland and Los Angeles. He still is looking for his first point.

Los Angeles stunned the Leafs 2-0 Monday night, just 24 hours after Oakland had dropped them 4-3. It was the only NHL game played.

Th consecutive losses left the sagging defending Stanley Cup champions in fifth place in the East Division, four points back of idle New York and only five ahead of last-place Detroit. The Leafs have dropped six in a row and seven of their last nine starts.

Rookie Wayne Rutledge kicked out 31 Toronto shots for his second shutout. And to make matters worse for Imlach, one of the Los Angeles goals was scored by Toronto discard Ed Joyal, who has tallied four of his 13 against the Leafs. Howie Menard got the other.

The victory, the second in three meetings with Toronto, moved the third-place Kings three points back of Minnesota in the West Division race. Los Angeles boasts a 9-9-0 record the best mark among the against the established teams, league's expansion clubs.

Olympic Judging System Riddled With Politics

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — They're the nine old men—and women—of the Winter Olympics, and no one is more maligned, more feared, more cultivated and more pampered.

They're the judges of the figure skating competition.

"They can take a dislike to you if they don't like the way you fix your hair, and they can mark you down for it," said one of the lady competitors.

"This sport always has been riddled with politics," commented one offical of the American team. "You put your whole caree in their hands."

The judges are a strange and mysterious group. They stand around the ice in long coats and with their arms loaded with papers and rating cards.

In the school figures, in which the competitors trace intricate designs on the ice, they get down on their hands and knees to examine the tracings.

It's a peculiar sight. You'd think they were looking for a lost contact lens.

The Iron Curtain judges—the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia, Romania, etc. almost always downgrade the Western skaters.

The Western judges hit back by low-rating the Reds.

The International Figure Skating Federation recently took note of the discrepancies in judging and called for the end of politics. The plea apparently fell on deaf ears.

"You have to watch your manners,' said one competitor. "You must be sure to smile at the judges and treat them nice."

Families and coaches of figure skaters have been known to wine and dine judges to curry their favor. It works.

The word around the Stade de Glace here in the Winter Olympics is that Emmerich Danzer of Austria, the world champion, has lost favor with the judges and may be beaten out of an Olympic gold medal. "He's become awfully cocky," a rival said. "The judges notice that."

Said one coach:

"The judges rate a performer on yesterday, today and tomorrow—not just today. They are influenced by the past record and they give good marks on potential instead of grading the skater strictly on what he does at the moment. It's ridiculous and frustrating—and unchangeable."

Haddox, Miller Top Seeds In Regional

Oak Glen, defending West Virginia state champion in wrestling, will compete in the Region 1 sectionals at Moundsville Saturday, and coach Vince Monseau reports he is pleased with the draws his boys have received.

Gale Haddox at 103 and Fred Miller at 138 are seeded number one, and they will meet the winners of first round matches in the quarterfinals of the tourney.

Dave Chilensky at 165 is seeded second, Craig Whittington at 133, Dave Lowther at 145 and Earl Jackson at 154 are seeded third and Jack Porter at 127, Darl Roberts at 180, Ed Fields at heavyweight and Bill Wells at 95 are seeded fourth.

Wells meets Keith Malinky of Wellsburg, Porter meets Bill Weaver of Follansbee, Whittington faces Emery Helmick of Weirton, Lowther takes on Fred Jewell of Wheeling, Jackson angles with Butch DeWitt of Wellsburg, Chilensky squares off with Ray Ritz of Warwood, Roberts grapples with Don Loht of Wellsburg and Fields wrestles Keith Casto of Wellsburg, all in quarter-final bouts.

Mike Swartzemiller at 112 meets Keith Spark of Warwood and Lynn Harrell at 120 takes on Rich Puskavich of Follansbee in first round matches.

Nine teams will compete in the regional. Oak Glen finished third in the regional last year before winning the state crown.

Big 10 Probes Michigan Irregularities

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A Big Ten examiner questioned the sports editor and a reporter of the University of Michigan student newspaper Monday at the outset of a probe into possible violations of conference rules by Michigan and Michigan State athletes.

"Right now we are trying to see how extensive our work is going to be," said John D. Dewey, Big Ten examiner and assistant commissioner.

It was the paper, the Michigan Daily, that brought on the probe by alleging that athletes at both schools were receiving free meals, discounts and other special privileges.

Last Friday, the paper carried a copyrighted story saying Michigan athletes were given free passes to Ann Arbor movie houses, free clothing at a haberdashery and discounts at one restaurant.

There followed Sunday a second copywrighted story alleging MSU athletes received discounts at movie theaters, free meal in dormitory grills, charged long distance phone calls to coaches and had expenses paid for visits by their parents to the East Laning campus.

"I can't say how long the probe will last," Dewey said.

"I will look into everything, report back to the commissioner, who will then go to the conference athletic directors. The directors themselves will have been violations."

Dewey said a similar investigation would be conducted on the Michigan State campus.

Judge Cuts Bowling Group's Fine $1,500

CLEVELAND (AP)— U. S. District Judge William K. Thomas heard Monday that Bowling Proprietors' Association of Northern Ohio, Inc., is broke and cut $1,500 off its $5,000 fine for price rigging.

Judge Thomas set the fine last November after the association and three officials pleaded no contest on charges of conspiring to fix prices and stop competition among members in the Greater Cleveland area.

Attorney Fred H. Mandel asked the judge to reduce the fine because he said the association was in financial trouble with more than $17,000 outstanding in unpaid dues and assessments.

6 Dairies Roll Back Price Hike On Milk

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Six dairies have rolled back penny-a quart price hikes they initiated last month.

Sealtest drew back shortly after hiking its prices, when its route drivers went on a one-day strike over the increase and the Allegheny County Commissioners announced they would investigate the increases. Otto quickly followed suit.

Harmony Dairy, Meadow Gold, Beverly Farms and Isaly joined in quietly over the next few weeks.

C. J. Milroth, executive director of the Greater Pittsburgh Dairy Industry Association, said Monday the price now stands at the Milk Control Commission of 54 cents per half gallon.

Somerset Scores 43; Warley Hits 16 In Row

By The Associated Press

Forty-three was the magic number in the American Basketball Association Monday night.

That was the number of points poured in by three separate players. Cincy Powell shattered a Dallas scoring record with his 43 in a 114-101 victory over Denver, snapping the Chaparrals' six-game losing string.

On the West Coast, Ben Warley and Willie Somerset matched that total as Warley's Anaheim club nipped Houston and Somerset, 145-142 in overtime.

Warley also set an ABA record, hitting 16 straight baskets, snapping the previous mark of 10 by teammate Lefty Thomas, set last month.

In other ABA games, New Jersey downed New Orleans 118-109 and Kentucky stopped Eastern Division leader Pittsburgh 131-107.

In the only National Basketball Association game, Chicago tripped Cincinnati 112-104 in overtime.

Powell, who set the previous Dallas scoring record Sunday against Minnesota, hitting for 41 points, wasted little time in breaking it as he sparked Dallas to an early lead and the Chaps never were headed. Larry Jones topped Denver with 23 points.

Warley began his streak in the second quarter, hitting on six straight shots to put Anaheim ahead 70-65 at the half after the Amigos had trailed earlier by 14 points. Warley ripped off 10 more in a row in a torrid third quarter which saw Anaheim streak ahead 87-71.

Then Somerset, a 5-foot-10 guard, triggered a tie for Houston at 129-129 after regulation time.

Te Americans reeled off five straight points just before halftime for an 11-point edge and took their third straight victory. Walt Simon led New Jersey with 24 points. Red Robbins had 30 for the Bucs.

Jm Ligon's 27 rebounds, a team record, and 21 points paced the Colonels to their easy victory over Pittsburgh. Connie Hawkins had 25 points for the Pipers.

Jerry Sloan's two jump shots in overtime gave the Bulls their overtime decision over the Royals, who played without the injured Oscar Robertson.

Clem Haskins' basket with nine seconds remaining in regulation play had tied the game 101-101. The Royals managed to score only five points in the last 8:42, including the overtime.

Connie Dierking, with 33 points, led Cincinnati. Jerry Lucas added 34 rebounds. Bob Boozer and Jim Washington had 19 points for the Bulls.

Ohio State Beaten, Big 10 Race Tightens

By The Associated Press

One thing is certain. The Big Ten basketball race isn't a runaway this year.

Ohio State's hopes for a title were slowed down Monday night when the Buckeyes dropped an 86-78 decision to Wisconsin on the Badgers floor.

The Buckeyes still hold a shaky lead in the conference with a 6-2 mark. But they could be joined at the top tonight if Northwestern beats Minnesota.

Northwestern and Iowa are right behind Ohio State with 5-2 records, followed by Illinois, 4-2. Wisconsin put itself back in the picture, upping its conference slate to 5-3.

Ohio State has six conference games left, three at home and three on the road. The next game is at Minnesota Saturday.

All five of Wisconsin's starters scored in double figures, led by Joe Franklin with 23. The Badgers repaid Ohio State for an earlier 86-64 defeat suffered in Columbus.

Ohio State learned that Bill Hosket is okay after suffering a knee injury Saturday. The big forward topped the Buckeye scoring with 23 points.

Elsewhere in Ohio college action,

Ohio University put together back-to-back victories for the first time this season as the Bobcats dumped Northern Illinois 85-76 at Athens. Gerald McKee sparked the Bobcats with 30 points.

Xavier continued its string of bad luck, losing to Fairfield, Conn., 64-60. Fairfield led from the start in handing Xavier its 14th defeat against eight victories. Zohn Zeides had 20 points for the Muskies.

New Garden Ice Machine Works Fine

NEW YORK (AP) — The stockholders can rest easy. The New Madison Square Garden makes ice.

Emile Francis, manager-coach of the New York Rangers, is a stickler for details and he decided to make sure his team would have something to skate on when they make their first appearance in their new home Sunday.

So, Francis ordered a rare Monday evening workout after a tough three-game-in-four-night stretch. He seemed satisfied with the $43 million dollar structure and its one-quarter inch layer of ice afterwards.

"It was our only chance to get the feel of it," said Francis. "I didn't want to have them playing on it without at least one practice on it."

Then Francis winked.

"Besides, I wanted to make sure we wouldn't wind up with a swimming pool when we turned the water on."

Maple Leafs Drop Second On Coast Trip

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don't hand Punch Imlach that line about going West, young man.

Coach Imlach took his Toronto Maple Leafs West for a couple of games with two National Hockey League expansion clubs —Oakland and Los Angeles. He still is looking for his first point.

Los Angeles stunned the Leafs 2-0 Monday night, just 24 hours after Oakland had dropped them 4-3. It was the only NHL game played.

Th consecutive losses left the sagging defending Stanley Cup champions in fifth place in the East Division, four points back of idle New York and only five ahead of last-place Detroit. The Leafs have dropped six in a row and seven of their last nine starts.

Rookie Wayne Rutledge kicked out 31 Toronto shots for his second shutout. And to make matters worse for Imlach, one of the Los Angeles goals was scored by Toronto discard Ed Joyal, who has tallied four of his 13 against the Leafs. Howie Menard got the other.

The victory, the second in three meetings with Toronto, moved the third-place Kings three points back of Minnesota in the West Division race. Los Angeles boasts a 9-9-0 record the best mark among the against the established teams, league's expansion clubs.

Olympic Judging System Riddled With Politics

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — They're the nine old men—and women—of the Winter Olympics, and no one is more maligned, more feared, more cultivated and more pampered.

They're the judges of the figure skating competition.

"They can take a dislike to you if they don't like the way you fix your hair, and they can mark you down for it," said one of the lady competitors.

"This sport always has been riddled with politics," commented one offical of the American team. "You put your whole caree in their hands."

The judges are a strange and mysterious group. They stand around the ice in long coats and with their arms loaded with papers and rating cards.

In the school figures, in which the competitors trace intricate designs on the ice, they get down on their hands and knees to examine the tracings.

It's a peculiar sight. You'd think they were looking for a lost contact lens.

The Iron Curtain judges—the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia, Romania, etc. almost always downgrade the Western skaters.

The Western judges hit back by low-rating the Reds.

The International Figure Skating Federation recently took note of the discrepancies in judging and called for the end of politics. The plea apparently fell on deaf ears.

"You have to watch your manners,' said one competitor. "You must be sure to smile at the judges and treat them nice."

Families and coaches of figure skaters have been known to wine and dine judges to curry their favor. It works.

The word around the Stade de Glace here in the Winter Olympics is that Emmerich Danzer of Austria, the world champion, has lost favor with the judges and may be beaten out of an Olympic gold medal. "He's become awfully cocky," a rival said. "The judges notice that."

Said one coach:

"The judges rate a performer on yesterday, today and tomorrow—not just today. They are influenced by the past record and they give good marks on potential instead of grading the skater strictly on what he does at the moment. It's ridiculous and frustrating—and unchangeable."

Haddox, Miller Top Seeds In Regional

Oak Glen, defending West Virginia state champion in wrestling, will compete in the Region 1 sectionals at Moundsville Saturday, and coach Vince Monseau reports he is pleased with the draws his boys have received.

Gale Haddox at 103 and Fred Miller at 138 are seeded number one, and they will meet the winners of first round matches in the quarterfinals of the tourney.

Dave Chilensky at 165 is seeded second, Craig Whittington at 133, Dave Lowther at 145 and Earl Jackson at 154 are seeded third and Jack Porter at 127, Darl Roberts at 180, Ed Fields at heavyweight and Bill Wells at 95 are seeded fourth.

Wells meets Keith Malinky of Wellsburg, Porter meets Bill Weaver of Follansbee, Whittington faces Emery Helmick of Weirton, Lowther takes on Fred Jewell of Wheeling, Jackson angles with Butch DeWitt of Wellsburg, Chilensky squares off with Ray Ritz of Warwood, Roberts grapples with Don Loht of Wellsburg and Fields wrestles Keith Casto of Wellsburg, all in quarter-final bouts.

Mike Swartzemiller at 112 meets Keith Spark of Warwood and Lynn Harrell at 120 takes on Rich Puskavich of Follansbee in first round matches.

Nine teams will compete in the regional. Oak Glen finished third in the regional last year before winning the state crown.

Big 10 Probes Michigan Irregularities

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — A Big Ten examiner questioned the sports editor and a reporter of the University of Michigan student newspaper Monday at the outset of a probe into possible violations of conference rules by Michigan and Michigan State athletes.

"Right now we are trying to see how extensive our work is going to be," said John D. Dewey, Big Ten examiner and assistant commissioner.

It was the paper, the Michigan Daily, that brought on the probe by alleging that athletes at both schools were receiving free meals, discounts and other special privileges.

Last Friday, the paper carried a copyrighted story saying Michigan athletes were given free passes to Ann Arbor movie houses, free clothing at a haberdashery and discounts at one restaurant.

There followed Sunday a second copywrighted story alleging MSU athletes received discounts at movie theaters, free meal in dormitory grills, charged long distance phone calls to coaches and had expenses paid for visits by their parents to the East Laning campus.

"I can't say how long the probe will last," Dewey said.

"I will look into everything, report back to the commissioner, who will then go to the conference athletic directors. The directors themselves will have been violations."

Dewey said a similar investigation would be conducted on the Michigan State campus.

Judge Cuts Bowling Group's Fine $1,500

CLEVELAND (AP)— U. S. District Judge William K. Thomas heard Monday that Bowling Proprietors' Association of Northern Ohio, Inc., is broke and cut $1,500 off its $5,000 fine for price rigging.

Judge Thomas set the fine last November after the association and three officials pleaded no contest on charges of conspiring to fix prices and stop competition among members in the Greater Cleveland area.

Attorney Fred H. Mandel asked the judge to reduce the fine because he said the association was in financial trouble with more than $17,000 outstanding in unpaid dues and assessments.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Six dairies have rolled back penny-a quart price hikes they initiated last month.

Harmony Dairy, Meadow Gold, Beverly Farms and Isaly joined in quietly over the next few weeks.

C. J. Milroth, executive director of the Greater Pittsburgh Dairy Industry Association, said Monday the price now stands at the Milk Control Commission of 54 cents per half gallon.

The taximeter shall be set at zero before any trip is started and the meter shall at all times be kept in proper repair. The taximeter shall indicate the fare on the mileage basis and a mileage meter shall show the distance traveled in miles and fractions of miles.

SECTION 773.11 FAULTY TAXIMETERS.

Waiting time shall include the time during which the taxicab is not in motion, beginning with the arrival at the place to which it has been called, or the time consumed while standing at the directions of the passenger. No time charge shall be made for the time lost by inefficiency of the taxicab or its operator or for the time consumed by a premature response to a call.

Junior Editors Quiz on LEAVES

QUESTION: Why do the leaves fall?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Leaves are born from buds. Inside each bud is a tiny, rolled-up leaf. The warm spring sun causes the bud to open and a fine new leaf grows out of it (upper left). You will notice something interesting — a bud on the branch, just to the right of where the new leaf stem joins. Is this the bud the leaf is growing from? No. This is another bud, which appeared just as the new leaf spread out and began to make food for the tree. This bud will wait there until the following spring, all ready to give out its own new green leaf when needed. Now fall is here; the bitter cold of winter is approaching. Nature seems to know that the broad leaf tree leaves could not survive the winter, as the water in their leaves would freeze. So it decides to seal them off from the rest of the tree. A little row of corky cells grows across the base of the leaf stem. Deprived of needed materials from the tree sap, the leaf loses its green chlorophyll. As this goes, other colors which were under the green are revealed. These are the fall colors. Now the leaf is dead and falls from the tree. John is looking at the scars left where the leaf stems were. They suggest little funny faces. Can you find some on winter branches?
